THE PSALMS OF DAVID

In Metre.

PSALM i. T. S.

He man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sate in scorner's chair.
But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.
He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the river side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose leaf shall never fade or fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.
So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or fight.
For why? the way of godly men
unto the Lord is known,
And eke the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM ii. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but in vain?
The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.
Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law,
let us reject the yoke.
But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.
For in his wrath the Lord will say,
so them upon a day,
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:

6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy law
and eke declare thy will.
7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot,
Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.
8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request,
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be potest.
9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a
as men under foot trod, (mace),
And as the potters sherd shall break
them with an iron rod.
10 Now ye O Kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.
11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoice
to him in like manner.
12 See that ye kiss, and eke embrace
his blessed Son I say,
Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.
13 If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breit:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

PSALM iii. T. S.

O Lord how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more?
2 They kill mine heart when as they say
God can him not restore.
3 But thou (O Lord) art my defence,
when I am hard beset:
My worlkip and mine honor both,
and thou holdest up my head.
4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry,
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by,
5 I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again,
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me susten.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid :
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore, save me my God,
For now to thee I call :
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks & teeth
Of those wicked men all.
Salvation only doth belong
to thee O Lord above : Thou dost bellow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

PSALM iiii. T. S.

1 God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call,
2 Thou hast set me at liberty
when I was bound and thrall.
3 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
And grant me my request :
For unto thee unceasantly,
to cry I will not rest.

3 O mortal men how long will ye
my glory thus despise !
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lyes ?
4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.
5 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.
6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say :
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.
7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyful and more glad.
Than they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.

9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep :
For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

PSALM. v. T. S.

1 Ncline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider :
2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Hear me betimes, Lord tarry not,
for I wil have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.
4 And I wil trust through patience
in thee my God alone :
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.
5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools, O Lord :

Vain workers of iniquity,
thou hast always abhor'd.
6 The lyars and the flatterers
Thou shalt destroy them than :
And God will hate the blood thirsty,
and the deceitful man.
7 Therefore will I come to thine house
trusting upon thy grace :
And reverently wil worship thee,
toward thine holy place.
8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes :
And eke the way wher I shal walk,
before my face disclose.
9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain :
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and faine.
10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought :
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But those that put their trust in the let them be glad always :
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.
12 For thou with favour wilt encreat
the just and righteous still :
And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

PSALM vi. T. S.

1 Ord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire :
No yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee desire,
2 For I am weak therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear :
And heal me Lord, for why thou knowest
my bones do quake for fear.
3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently,
But Lord how long wilst thou delay,
to cure my misery ?
4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my filly soul up take :
O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
5 For why no man among the dead
rememb'reth thee one whit :
Or who shal worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit ?
6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint :
All the night long I wal'k my bed
with tears of my complaint.
7 My fight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart :
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity :
For why the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.
9 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart :

But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
2 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all
to their rebuke and shame.

PSALM viij. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue:
and eke deliver me,
3 Left like a Lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces small:
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.
4 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight.
5 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and haced me caufles.
6 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.
7 Stare up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.
8 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

9 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord now judge thou me;
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second Part.

10 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:
by whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descri'd.
11 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain or smart:
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.
12 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.
13 Except he change his mind, I die,
for even as he shold smite,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.
14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.
15 But lo, though he in travel be
of his devilish forecast:
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last,

15 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the bane
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall upon his head.
17 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously:
And with my song will praise the name
of him that is most high.

PSALM viiij. T. S.

O God our Lord how wonderful
are thy works every where:
Whose fame surmounts in dignity,
above the heavens clear!
2 Even by the mouths of sucking babes;
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.
3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The Sun, the Moon, and all the Stars
in order as they stand:
4 What thing is man (Lord) think I then
that thou dost him remember?
Or what is mans potteries,
that thou doest it consider?
5 For thou hast made him little less than Angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignity.
6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.
7 As sheep and neat, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:
8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderful
are thy works through the world?

PSALM ix. T. S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare always.
2 I will be glad, and much rejoice,
in thee O God most high:
And make my songs extol thy Name,
above the starry skie.
3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat, and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou doest with justice hear my cause
most like a righteous Judge.
5 Thou doest rebuke the heathen folk
and wicked so confound;

A 3

That

- That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
- 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroy'd:
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd,
through all the world so wide.
- 7 Know now that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity
true judgement will maintain.
- 8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And so will yield with equity
to every man his right.
- 9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be opprest:
He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.
- 10 And they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakeft not their suit
in their necessity.
- The second Part.
- 11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill:
Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.
- 12 For he is mindful of the blood
of those that be opprest:
Forgetting not th' afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.
- 13 Have mercy Lord on me poor wretch,
whose enemies still remain:
Which from the gates of death are wont
to raise me up again.
- 14 In Sion that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice:
And that in thy salvation Lord,
my soul might still rejoice.
- 15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd:
And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are starr'd.
- 16 God shews his judgments & were good for every man to mark:
When as ye see the wicked man
is trap'd in his own wark.
- 17 The wicked and deceitful men
go down to hell for ever:
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
- 18 But sure the Lord will not forget
the poor mans grief and pain:
The patient people never look
for help of God in vain.
- 19 O Lord arise let men prevail,
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive,
their judgment in thy sight.
- 20 Lord strike such terror, fear, and dread
into the hearts of them:
That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortal men.

- PSALM x. T. 5.
- What is the cause that thou, O Lord
art now so far from thine?
And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?
- 2 The poor do perish by the proud
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.
- 3 For in the lust of his own heart
th' ungodly doth delight,
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despight.
- 4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect:
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
- 6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread,
left mine estate should change:
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange.
- 7 His mouth is full of cursedness,
of fraud, deceit, and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief fit,
and travel all the while.
- 8 He lieth hid in wayes and holes,
to slay the innocent:
Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruel eyes are bent.
- 9 And like a Lion privily
lies lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.
- 10 And for the nonce full crakily
he croucherh down, I say:
So are great heaps of poor men made
by his strong power his prey.
- The second Part.
- 11 Tush God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
- 12 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom
the poor mans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forger not Lord
the poor that be opprest.
- 13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord doth thou not abhor it?
To hear the wicked in their heart,
say, tush thou car'st not for it?
- 14 But thou seest all their wickedness
and well doft understand,
That friendless and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.
- 15 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for ever:
That they wish their iniquity
may perish altogether.

Psalm xi. XII. XIII. XIV.

16 The Lord shall reign for evermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folk,
out of the land each one.

17 Thou heard'st (O Lord) the poor man's their prayer and request: (plaint)
Their hearts thou wilt confirm until thine ears to hear be prest.

18 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

PSALM XI. T. S.

1 Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul until?
Fly hence as fast as any sow,
and hide you in your hill.
2 Behold the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harm'less brent.
3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrank,
and clearly brought to nought:
Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought!
4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high:
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal Majesty.
The poor and simple man's estate
confidereth in his minde:
And searcheth our full narrowly
the manners of mankind:
5 And with a cheerful countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse.
6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any rain:
Fire and brimstone & whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace:
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

PSALM XII. T. S.

1 Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
For faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbor talk,
his talk is all but vain;
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lye, and fain.
3 But flattering and deceitful lips,
and tongues that be so sloc,
To speak proud words, and make great
the Lord soon cuts them out. (brags)
4 For they say still, we will prevail,
our tongues shall us extol:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak,
what Lord shall us control?

5 But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men opprest:
Arise will I, now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd:
And hath no less then seven times
in fire been purifi'd.

7 Now sith thy promise is to help,
Lord keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold:
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extol'd.

PSALM XIII. T. S.

1 How long wilt thou forget me Lord?
How shall I here be remembered?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou were offend'd?
2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foe
thus triumph over me?
3 Behold me now, my Lord my God:
and hear me sore opprest:
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep,
as one by death possest.
4 Lest that mine enemies say to me,
behold I do prevail:
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.
5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall never start:
In thy relief and saving health,
right glad shall be my heart.
6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing,
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my willing.

PSALM XIV. T. S.

1 Here is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.
2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind:
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to finde.
3 They went all wide and were corrupt
and truly there was none,
That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.
4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still?
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?
5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all,
6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame:

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his Name.

- 7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfil Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill?
8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM xv. T. S.

- O Lord within thy Tabernacle,
who shall inhabit still!
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?
1 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.
2 Not to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods, or name:
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might impair the same.
3 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.
4 His oath and all his promises
that keeper faithfully:
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.
5 That purseth not to usury
his money and his coin:
Nor for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else purloin.
6 Who so doth all things as you see that here is to be done:
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSALM xvi. T. S.

- L ord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou haft no need.
2 I give my goods unto the Saints
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faithful flock
in virtue that excel.

- 3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads
which run at they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

- 5 For why? the Lord the portion is
of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beauty did excel.

Mine heritage assign'd to me,
dost please me wondrous well.

- 7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy Holy One,
corruption for to see.
11 But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSALM xvii. T. S.

- O Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not fain.
2 And let the judgement of my cause,
proceed always from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.
3 Thou haft well cri'd me in the night,
and yet couldst not nothing finde:
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.
5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me Lord and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:
Then hear my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have said.

- 7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy Majesty.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The Second Part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
so full are they and far,

Thas

Psalm xviii:

7

- That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.
- 11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound:
And misusing mischief in their mind
to cast me to the ground.
- 12 Much like a Lion greedily
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a Lions vwhelm,
within some secret place.
- 13 Up Lord, in haste prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
- 14 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.
- 15 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rise:
That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.
- 16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st
with pleasure to their mind:
Their children have enough and leave
to theirs the rest behind.
- 17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I awake I shall be full of thine image and grace.
- PSALM xviii. T. S.
- O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.
- 1 My God, my Rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.
- 2 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd;
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserv'd.
- 4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did purse me in great fear.
- 5 The flie and subtle snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
- 6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint,
out of his holy place.
- 7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundation of the mount
of basan to shake.
- 8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.

- 9 The Lord defended from above,
and boved the heavens high:
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.
- 10 On Cherubs and on Cherubims
full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

- 11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.
- 12 but when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear:
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coles of fire.
- 13 The fiery darts and thunder bolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
- 14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheer,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.
- 15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below:
And pluck'd me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
- 16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withal.
- 17 They did prevent me to oppreſſ
in time of my great grief:
but yet the Lord was my defence,
my succor and relief.
- 18 He brought me forth in open places,
vwhereas I might be free:
And kept me safe because he had a favour unto me.
- 19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleannels of my hands
he gave me my reward.
- 20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod:
And have not sinned wickedly
against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

- 21 but evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.
- 22 but pure, and clean, and uncorrupt,
appear'd before his face:
And did restrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.
- 23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleannels of my hands
appearing in his sight.
- 24 For Lord with him that holy is
will thou be holy too,

- And with the good and virtuous men
right virtuously will do.
- 25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve :
And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wicked men deserve.
- 26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie:
And dost bring down the countenance
of them whar look full high.
- 27 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright :
The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.
- 28 For by thy help an host of men
discomfit Lord I shall:
By thee I scale and over-leap
the strength of any wall.
- 29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
his word is surely try'd :
He is a sore defence to such as in his faith abide.
- 30 For who is God except the Lord ?
for other there is none :
Or else, who is omnipotent
saving our God alone ?
- The fourth Part.
- 31 The God that girdeth me with strength
is he that I do mean :
That all the wayes wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.
- 32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftness of my pace :
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.
- 33 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight :
To break in funder bars of bras,
he gave mine arms the night.
- 34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower :
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.
- 35 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk:
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.
- 36 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoyd :
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroy'd.
- 37 So I suppress and wound my foes
that they can rise no more.
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.
- 38 For thou dost gird me w thy strength
to war in such a wise :
That they be all scattered abroad,
that up against me rise.
- 39 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortal enemies yake :
And all my foes thou dost divide
In sunder with thy stroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave e
nor help them with relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth Part.

- 41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them under feet :
And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.
- 42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk
that still in strife are led.
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
- 43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve :
And at the first obey my words ;
whereas mine own will swerve.
- 44 I shall be irkome to mine own,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide our of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
- 45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all prale :
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he always.
- 46 For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be :
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.
- 47 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me above those
That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.
- 48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall :
And sing out praises to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all :
- 49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the King I say :
To David thine anointed King
and to his seed for ay.
- PSALM xix. T. S.
- T
- He heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.
- 2 The wondrous works of God appear
by every dayes success :
The nighs likewise which their race run
the self-same thing express.
- 3 There is no language, tongue, or speech
where their sound is not heard :
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is confess'd.
- 4 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown :
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
doth from his chamber come.
- 5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand
some noble enterprize

Psalm xx. xxi. xxii.

9

- 6 And all the skie from end to end
he c. impaireth at out :
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his Covenant sure :
Converting soule, and making wise
the simple and obscure ?
8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and g'ad both heart and minde :
His precepts pure, and giveth light
to eyes that be full blinde.
9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether :
10 And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold I say :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.
11 By them thy servante is forewarn'd
to have God in regard :
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most ripe.
13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me :
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth, and eke my heart
my words and thoughts each one :
For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALM xx. T. S.

- 1 In trouble and adverſity,
the Lord God hear thee still :
The Majestie of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need :
And so in Sion stablith thee,
and make thee strong indeed.
3 Remembering well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done :
And so receive right thankfully,
thy burnt-offerings each one.
4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :
And all thy counsel and device,
full well perform may he.
5 We shall rejoice when thou us saveſt,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace :
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.
7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust :

- But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
8 They fall down flats but we do rise
and stand up stedfastly :
9 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSALM xxi. T. S.

- O Lord how joyful is the King,
in thy strength and thy power :
How vehemently doth he rejoice
in thee his Saviour ?
2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire :
To him nothing thou hast deni'd,
of that he did require 3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.
4 And when he ask'd life of thee,
thereof how mad'it him sure :
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.
5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :
Great worship and great honour both
thou hast upon him laid.
6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay :
And with thy cheerful countenance
will comfort him alway.
7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prev. il :
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.
8 But let thine enemies feel thy forces,
and those that thee withstand, Finde out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.
9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase :
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.
11 For why, much mischief did they muse
against thy holy Name :
Yet did they fail and had no power
for to perform the same.
12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow strings readily
against thine enemies face.
13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength every hour :
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

PSALM xxii. T. S.

- O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,

Ang. 6

- And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry ?
 3 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call :
 I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
- 3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell :
 Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel .
- 4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever :
 And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.
- 5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :
 And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame
- 6 but I am now become a worm,
more like than any man :
 An out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spire they can .
- 7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way :
 They grin , they mow , they nod their
and on this wise they say : (heads,
- 8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :
 Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove .
- 9 but Lord out of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest :
 Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
whilst I did suck her brest .
- 10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode :
 Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been ere my God .

The second Part.

- 11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grief :
 Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief .
- 12 So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
 Yea bulls so far, as though they had the Bashan field been fed .
- 13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :
 Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey .
- 14 but I drop down like water shed,
my joyns in funder break :
 My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat . (strength)
- 15 And like a potherd dri'th my my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last .
- 16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke
Conspire against me curstely,
they pierce my hands and feet ,

- 17 I was tormented, so that mighty all my bones have told :
 Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold .
- 18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :
 And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might betal .
- 19 Therefore I pray thee be not far from me at my greate need :
 But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed .
- 20 And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power :
 And keep my soul thy darling deer,
from dogs that would devour .
- 21 And from the Lions mouth that would
me all in funder shiver ;
 And from the horns of Unicorns
Lord safelie me deliver .
- 22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy Majestie record :
 And in thy Church shall praise the Name of thee the living Lord .

The third Part.

- 23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
 And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him .
- 24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry .
 His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry .
- 25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name .
- 26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd .
and those that do endeavour
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name,
their hearts shall live for ever .
- 27 All coasts of th' earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace : (Lord)
 The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blest face .
- 28 The Kingdom of the Heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
 And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore .
- 29 The rich man of his goodly gifts,
shall feed and rattle also :
 And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low .
- 30 And all that shall go down to dust
of life by him shall rattle :
 My feed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last .
- 31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
 His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder .

Psalm xxij. W. W.

THe Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed :
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need ?
2 He doth me fold in cotes most safe,
the tender graſs fayt by :
And after drives me to the streams
which run most meaſantly.
3 And when I feel my ſelf near loſt,
then doth he me home take :
Conducing me in his right paths,
even for his own Names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaths door
yet would I fear none ill :
For with thy rod and thaperds crook,
I am comforted ſtill.
5 Thou haſt my table richly deck'd,
in diſpight of my foe :
Thou haſt my head with balm refresh'd
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally while breath doth laſt,
thy grace ſhall me defend :
And in the houſe of God will I
my life for ever ſpend.

PSALM xxv. T. 5.

ILift my heart to thee,
my God and guide moft juſt :
Now ſuffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I truſt.
2 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a ſcorn of me :
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their truſt in thee.
3 but shame ſhall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully ;
Therefore thy paths and thy right ways
unto me Lord deſcry.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray :
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faulſes
and frailty of my youth :
Remember not how ignorance
I have been of thy truth.
Nor after my deſerts
let me thy mercy find :
but of thine own benignity,
Lord have me in thy minde.
7 His mercy is full ſweet,
his truth a perfect guide :
Therefore the Lord will funners reach,
and ſuch as go afide.
8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep :
He will direct in all his ways,
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the ways of God,
are truth and mercy both .

To them that keep his Testament,
the wicke is of his troth.

The second Part.

- 10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct :
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand :
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the Land.
13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Testament.
14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance :
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moan :
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortless alone,
16 The troubles of my heart,
are multipl'd indeed :
Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain :
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.
18 O Lord, behold my foes
how they do still increase :
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.
19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me :
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
20 Let my simple pureness
me from my enemies shend :
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldest me defend.
21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

PSALM xxvi. T. S.

- I Ord be my judge and thou shalt see,
my paths be right and plain :
I trust in God, and hope that he will strenght me to remain.
2 Prove me my God, I thee desire,
my wayes to search and try :
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.
3 Thy goodness laid before my face,
I durst behold alwayes :

For of thy truth I tread the trate,
and will do all my dayes.

4 I do not lust to haunt or use,
with men whose deeds are vain :
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitful train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise :
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtful things devise.
6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright :
Then to thine Altar I make speed
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee :
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou haft been good to me.
8 O God thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell :
I have delight, and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not up my soul with them,
in sin that take their fill :
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seek much blood to spill.

10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full : (guile)
And their right hand wrench and wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve :
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve :
12 My foot is ftsid for all affayres,
it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

PSAL. xxvii. J. H.

The Lord is both my health and light
shall man make me dismayed ?

Sith God doth give me strength & might why should I be afraid ? (strength

2 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl,
And think to eat me up at length,
themselves have caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
In battle pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny :
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell.

To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well,

6 In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most pure :
And keep me secret by his side,
as ou a rock most sure,

7 At length I know the Lord's good grace
    shall make me strong and stour,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
    that compass me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalms and Songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The Second Part.

9 Lord hear the voice of my request,
    for which to thee I call;
Have mercy Lord on me opprest,
    and send me help without.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
    I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face laist thou so me,
    Lord I will seek thy face.
11 In wrath turn-not thy face away,
    nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
    be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their son forsook,
    and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took
    of me the care and charge.
13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
    and lead me on forth right:
For fear of such as watch for me,
    to trap me if they might,
14 Do not betake me to the will
    of them that be my foes:
For they surmife against me still,
    false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint, but that in me
    this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
    in life that eye shall last. (art, 16 Trust still in God whose whole tho u
    his will abide thou must:
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
    if thou in him do trust.

PSALM xxviii. T. S.

T Hou art (O Lord) my strength and the succor which I crave. (itay Neglect me not, lest I be like
    to them that go to grave.
3 The voice of thy suppliant hear
    that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark most High.
4 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and perverse:
They speak right fair unto their friends,
    but think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy-work,
    as they deserve indeed:
And after their inventions
    let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods work,
    his law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed,
    despoyle for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord,
    how great a cause have I,

My voice, my prayer, and my complaints
    that heard so willingly?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
    my buckler in distress:
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
    my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
    our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation
    of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
    Lord bleis, guide, and preserve:
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts
    that they may never swerve.

PSALM xxix. T. S.

G IVE to the Lord ye Potentates,
    ye Rulers of the world:
Give ye all praise, honour, and strength
    unto the living Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
    and honour him alone:
Worship him in Majestie
    within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all
    even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
    and governs all the seas.
4 The voice of God is of great force,
    and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
    and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
    the Cedar-trees so long:
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
    which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leap like as a Galt,
    or else the Unicorn:
Not only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
    and shakes the wilderness:
It makes the desert quake for fear,
    that called is Gadeh.
8 It makes the Hinds for fear to calve,
    and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his Temple every man
    his glory doth proclaim.

9 The Lord was set above the floods,
    ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reign as Lord and King,
    for ever and for aye.
10 The Lord will give his people power
    in virtue to increase:
The Lord will bleis his chosen flock
    with everlasting peace.

PSALM xxx. J. H.

A LL laud and praise with heart and
    O Lord I give to thee: (voice,
Which didst not make my foes rejoice,
    but hast exalted me.

3 O Lord my God to thee I cry'd
    is all my pain and grief:

Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide
to ease me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save :
Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and keptst me from the grave.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that prove and see
the goodness of the Lord :
In memory of his Majesty
rejoice with one accord.

5 For why ? his anger but a space
doth last and slack again :
but in his favour and his grace
always doth life remain.
Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore
shall lodge with us all night :
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say :
Turn, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid :
but when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my mind was sore dismait.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might :
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.
9 What gain is in my blood (said I)
if death destroy my dayes ?
Dost dust declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise ?

10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord I thee desire :
Do not this simple foul forsake,
of help I thee require.
11 Then didst thou turn my grief & woe
into a cheerful voice :
The mourning weed thou took'st me fro
and mad'st me to rejoice.

12 Wherefore my soul unceasantly shall sing unto thy praise :
My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

PSALM xxxi. J. H.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame,
As thou art iust deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.
2 Hear me O God, and that anon,
to help me make good speed :
be thou my rock and house of stome,
my fence in time of need.
3 For why? as stomes thy strength is tri'd
thou art my fort and tower :
For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare,
which they for me have laid :

Thou art my strength, and all my aid
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my spirit which is thy due :
For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
6 I have such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd :
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excel :
Thou seest when ought would me annoy
and know'st my foul full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me overcharge :
but thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The Second Part.
9 Great grief O Lord doth me afflai,
some pity on me take :
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail
my womb for woe doth ake.
10 My life is worn with grief, and pain
my years in woe are past :
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waaie.
11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismait :
My neighbors and my kinsmen born,
to see me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot :
As small effect in me they find,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threas my mind did fray :
How they conspir'd and event about
to take my life awaay.
14 but Lord I trust in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod :
For I confess and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand :
Defend me from the vrath and rage
of them that me wwithstand.
16 To me thy servant (Lord) express,
and shew thy joyful face :
And save me Lord for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.
17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call :
but let the wicked bear the shame,
and in their grave to fall.
18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright
which are addit to lies ;
And cruelly wwith pride and spight
against the just devise.
19 O how great good hast thou in store
hid up full safe for them.

that fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men! (guide
so Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

31 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far:
Me to defend with warch and ward,
as in a town of war.
32 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest:
Lo I was clean cast ou of fight,
yet heardist thou my request.
33 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithful he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
34 Be strong and God will stay your heart:
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
fish ye in him do trust.

PSALM xxxii. T. S.

He man is blest who's wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.
3 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint:
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily moan and plaine.
For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to driness did convert.

I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins discover,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.

The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
so that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

When trouble and adversity
do compas me about:
Thou art my refug and my joy,
and thou doft rid me out.
Come higher and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:
will thee guide, as I my self
have learn'd by proof and sight.

Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:
Hose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.
The wicked man shall; manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:
Unto him that cravts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoice.

PSALM xxxiii. J. H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankful voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in Psalms and pleasant things:
With Lute and Instrument among,
that sounder with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
4 For ~~say~~ his word is ever true,
his works and all his wayes.
5 To judgement equiy and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hofts and powers every one
his breath to pass hath brought.
7 The waters great gathered hath he
on hys within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most fear God and keep his Law:
Ye, that inhabit in each coate,
dread him and stand in awe.
9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rade
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude,
of their device and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second Part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lot
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth choose of meer accord
to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on men mortal by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers on the earth.

15 The Lord I say whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.

16 A King that trutcher in his host shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength,

17 The troops of horsemen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall ferve :
The strength of horse shall not prevail,
the rider to pserve.

18 But lo the eyes of God intend
and watch to aid the just :
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread ;
And if that dearth their land oppres,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherfore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game, rejoicing in his might :
For why, in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord
still present with us be :
And we awakes with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSALM xxxiv. T.S.

I Will give laud and honor both unto the Lord aways :
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul, and eke in voice :
Thac humble men and mortifi'd
may hear and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord :
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.

4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
he answered me again :
And me deliver'd incontinent,
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear,
Their countenance shall not be daur,
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief,
unto the Lord did call :
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tenes in every place :
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much :

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second Part.

11 Come near therefore my children de
and to my words give ear :
I shall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a blessed life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why ? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent :
His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brow
upon the wicked train :
And cuts away the memory,
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand
to such as be contrite :
He saves also the sorrowful,
the poor and meek in sprice.

19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer :
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway :
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man
which he himself hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound,
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSALM xxxv. T. S.

I Ord plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armor dress :
Stand up for me, and fight the field,
to help me from distress.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way
mine enemies to withstand,
That shew unto my soul maist say
Lo, I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke & blame,
that seek my soul to spill :

Let them turn back and flee with shame
that think to work me ill.
 5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:
And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.
 6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:
And send thine angel with thy might
to persecute them all.
 7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their gin:
And for no cause have dig'd a cave,
to take my soul therein.
 When they think least and have no care
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trap in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.
 9 And let my soul in heart and voice
in God have joy and wealth;
That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health.
 10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my pares shall all agree:
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?
The second Part.
 11 Thou doft defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poor from wicked men
that spoil and do them wrong.
 12 My cruel foes against me rise,
to witness things untrue:
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.
 13 Where I to them did owe good will
they quit me with disdain:
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.
 14 When they were sick I know'd there,
and clad my self in sack: (sore
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.
 15 As they had been my brethren dear
I did my self behave:
As one that maketh woful cheer
about his mothers grave.
 16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea, abject slaves of me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stouter.
 17 The belly-gods and flattery train,
that all good things deride:
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.
 18 Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and paule?
O rid my soul, mine only dear,
out of these Lions claws.
 19 And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the Church always:
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise,

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turn their eyes
that causeth me assault.

The third Part.

- 21 Of peace no word they think or say:
their talk is all untrue:
They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
 22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they sneer:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.
 23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they cease not my grief to mend: (take,
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
 24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
 25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:
And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me,
 26 Let not their hearts rejoice and cry,
There, there, all goeth trim:
Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.
 27 Confound them with rebuke & shame
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spire & blame
that brag at me with scorn.
 28 Let them be glad and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way,
And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say, 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excel,
for why, he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
 30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply
thy righteousness to praise:
Unto my Lord my God will I sing laud and praise always.

PSALM xxxvi. J. H.

- THe wicked with his works unjust
doth thus perwade his heart:
That of the Lord he doth not trust
his fear is set apart.
 2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began:
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
 3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell,
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
 4 When he should sleep, then doth he his mischief to fulfil: (muse
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill,

- 5 But Lord thy goodness doth ascend
above the heavens high,
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more than hills so high and steep
thy justice is exprest :
Thy judgment like to seas most deep,
thou lav'it both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excel :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sons of men shal dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why ? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and shew
to men of upright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.
12 but they in their device shall fall
that wicked works maintrain :
They shall be overthrown withal,
and never rise again.
- PSALM xxxviii. W. W.
- G rudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still :
Nor yet envy such as to ill
have bear and set their will.
2 For as green grafts and flourishing herbs
are eas and wither away :
So shal their great prosperity
soon pass, fade, and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :
So shal thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt find.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight,
and look whaz thou wouldst have,
Or else can wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.
5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs,
on God with perfect trust :
And thou shal see with patience,
the effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
be will clear as the light :
So that the Sun even at noon days,
shall not shine half so bright.
7 Be still therefore and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then :
Nor shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men,

- 8 Shake off despight, envy and hate,
at least in any wise :
Their wicked steps avoid and flee
and follow not their guise.
9 For every wicked man will God
destroy both more and less :
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to posses :
10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train :
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.
- The second Part.
- 11 But merciful and humble men
enjoy shal sea and land :
In rest and peace they shal rejoice,
for nougat shal them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious,
against the just conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him as men,
which do his bane desire.
13 But while these lewd men thus do think
the Lord laughs them to scorn :
For why he sees the term approach,
when they shall figh and mourn.
14 The wicked have their swords out,
their bow eke have they bent : (drawn)
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as they the right way went.
15 But the same sword shal pierce their
which was to kill the just : (heart)
Likewise the bow shall break to shivers
wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more :
Then all these lewd and wicked mens
rich pomp and heaped store.
17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
18 He sees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance,
which never shal decay.
19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard beset :
When other shal be hunger hit,
they shal be clad and fed.
20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :
Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs great
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again :
Whereas the just by liberal gifts,
make many glad and fain.
22 For they whom God doth bless shall
the land for heritance. (have)
And they whom he doth curse likewise
shall perish in his rage,

1 The Lord the just mans ways doth and gives him good success: (guide,
to every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good address.

2 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail,
because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.

3 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.

4 But gives always most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity
receive of God their need.

5 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vice do embrace:
So shall God grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.

6 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace:
That he preserveth them alway,
but destroyes the wicked race.

7 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land:
Having as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.

8 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and hie:
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.

9 For in his heart the Law of God
his Lord doth still abide:

10 So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.

11 The wicked like a raving wolf,
the just man doth befeir:
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

12 Though he should fall into his hands
yet God would succour send:

13 Though men against him sentence give,
God woul'd him yet defend.

14 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then:

15 The earth to rule, and thou shalt see
destroy'd these wicked men.

16 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree:
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Laurel-tree.

17 But suddenly he pass away,
and so he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.

18 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shal have at length
great joy with rest and peace.

19 As for transgrefours, wo to them,
destroy'd they shall all be:

God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

20 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them aid
of his meer grace and love.

21 God doth them help, save, and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still wil give them whith that they
in him do put their trust:

PSALM XXXVIIij. J.H.

1 Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me
thy hand doth press me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appear any more.

3 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sin.

4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone:
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.

5 My wounds stink and are seffered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnes
beiderid unto me.

6 And I in careful wise am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go wailing all the day
in doleful heaviness.

7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:

8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for grief of heart.

9 Thou know'it (Lord) my desire, my
are open in thy sight, (groans)

10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light. (fails)

11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinmen far away
are me departed fro.

12 They that did seek my life laid snares
and they that foughte the way To do me hurt, speake lies and thoughts
on mischief all the day.

The second Part.

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:

14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withal.

15 For all my confidence O Lord
is wholly set on thee:

O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.

16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

- For when my soul did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
 17 And truly I poor wretch am set,
in place, a woful wight :
 And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.
 18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confess :
 And while I for my sinful deeds,
my sorrows do express :
 19 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also,
 And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.
 20 They stand against me, that my good
with evil do repay :
 Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.
 21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away :
 22 Haste me to help, my Lord, my God,
my safety and my stay.

PSALM xxxix. J. H.

- I Said I will look to my wayes,
for fear I should go wrong :
 I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
 2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might :
 Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.
 3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still :
 Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.
 4 My heart waxt hot within my brest,
with musing thought and doubt :
 Which did increase and stak the fire,
at last these words burst out,
 5 Lord number our my life and dayes
which yet I have not past,
 So that I may be certifi'd,
how long my life shall last.
 6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span :
 Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.
 7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy
 In getting goods, and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjoy.
 8 Now Lord since things this wise do what help do I desire ? (frame,
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second Part.

- 9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand :
 And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.
 10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move ;

Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

- 11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand : (plague,
I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.
 12 When thou for sin dost man rebukt,
he waxeth woe and wan :
 As doth a cloth that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.
 13 Lord hear my suit, and give good heed
regard my tears that fall :
 I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
 14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore :
 Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.
- PSALM xl. J. H.
- I Waisted long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear :
 At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to hear.
 2 He pluck'd me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay :
 And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
 3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad :
 And sing new songs of thanks alwayes
unto the Lord our God.
 4 When all the folk these things shall
as people much afraid :
 Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.
 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain :
 That with the proud do take no part
nor such as lye and fain.
 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous do
in greatness far do pass :
 Thy favor towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
 7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to show :
 To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.
 8 Butnt offerings thou delight not in
I know thy whole desire,
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou doft no man require.
 9 Meats-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all :
 But thou (O Lord) haft open made
mine ears to hear withal.
 10 But then said I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be :
 For in the volume of thy book
thus it is said of me, 11 That I (O Lord) should do thy will which thing doth like me well :

For in my heart thy law I finde
fist placed there to dwell.
 12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great respects I tell :
 Hold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowst full well.
 The second Part.
 13 I have not hid within my brest,
thy goodness as by stealth,
But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.
 14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know :
 The truth that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I show.
 15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me,
withdraw thou not away,
but let thy love and verity
preserve me still for ay.
 16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about :
 My sins increase, and so come on.
 I cannot spy them out.
 For why ? in number they exceed
the hairs upon my head :
 My heart doth faint for very dread,
 that I am almost dead.
 17 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord I thee require :
 Take hafte with aid to succor me,
O Lord at my desire.
 Let them sustain rebuke and shame,
 that seek my soul to spill :
 Give back my foes, and them defame,
 that wish and would me ill.
 For their ill feats do them desry,
 that would deface my name :
 Wayes at me they rail and cry,
 fie on him, fie for shame.
 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
 that seek to thee alwayes :
 But those that love thy saving health
 may say, To God be praise.
 But as for me, I am but poor,
 opprest and brought full low :
 O thou O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.
 For why, thou art my hope and trust,
 my refuge, help, and stay,
 therefore my God as thou art just,
 with me no time delay.

PSALM xli. T. S.

He man is blest that careful is the needy to consider :
 In the seafon perillous
 the Lord will him deliver.
 The Lord will make him safe and sound
 and happy in the land :
 And he will not deliver him
 into his enemies hand.
 And on his bed when he lies sick,
 the Lord will him restore :
 If thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
 his sickness and his sore,

- 4 Then in my fickness thus said I,
 have mercy Lord on me,
 And heal my soul, which is full woe,
 that I offended thee.
 5 Mine enemies wish'd me ill in heart
 and thus of me did say,
 When shall he die, that all his name
 may vanish quite away ?
 6 And when they come to visit me,
 they ask if I do well :
 But in their heart mischiefs they hatch,
 and to their mates it tell.
 7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
 as though they would me charm,
 And cast their snares how to trap
 me with some deadly harm.
 8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this fickness, say they plain :
 He is so low, that without doubt
 rise can he not again.
 9 The man also that I did trust,
 with me did use deceit :
 Who at my table ate my bread,
 the same for me laid wait.
 10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
 and let me be preserv'd,
 That I may render unto them
 the things they have deserv'd.
 11 By this I know assuredly
 to be belov'd of thee,
 When that mine enemies have no cause
 to triumph over me.
 12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
 and maintained alway ;
 And in thy presence place assign'd
 where I shall dwell for ay.
 13 The Lord the God of Israel
 be praised evermore,
 Even so be it (Lord) will I say,
 even so be it therefore.

PSALM xlii. J. H.

- Like as the hart doth breath and bray,
 The well-springs to obtain,
 So doth my soul desire alway,
 with thee Lord to remain.
 2 My soul doth thirst, & would draw near the living God of might :
 O when shall I come and appear
 in presence of his sight !
 3 The tears all times are my repast,
 which from mine eyes do slide,
 When wicked men cry out so fast,
 Where now is God thy guide ?
 4 Alas what grief is this to think what freedom once I had ?
 Therefore my soul as at pits brank,
 most heavy is and sad.
 When I did march in good array,
 furnished with my train,
 Unto the temple was our way,
 with songs and hearts most faint.

3 My soul why art thou sad always,
and faint thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succor at need,
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soui within me Lord,
dost faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second Part.

7 One grief another in doth call
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness,
and help at all assayes:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.
9 I am perswaded thus to say
to him with pure presence:
O Lord thou art my guide and stay
my rock and sure defence,
Why do I then in pensiveness,
hanging the head thus walk?
While that mine enemies me opprest,
and vex me with their talk.

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry out with stubborn hearts
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why doth thou faint & quail,
my soul with pain opprest:
With thoughts why doth thy self affail,
so sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise
for health restor'd to thee.

PSALM xliv. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitful men,
O Lord deliver me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why puttest thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily
opprest with my foe?
3 Send out thy light and eke thy grace:
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go,
of God my joy and cheer:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and faint thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it always best.
6 By him I have deliverance

against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth always
at need send me relief.

PSALM xliv. T. S.

Our ears have heard our fathers tell
and reverently record,
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in older time O Lord.
2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles
and faindest them with strong hands:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword or spear
the land of thy behest: (strength)
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,
because thou lov'dst them best.
4 Thou art my King, O God, that holdest
Jacob in sundry wise:
5 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise. (success)

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me found:
7 Thou kest us from our enemies rage
thou didst our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:
9 Yet now thou go'st not wish our harm
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes
and so were over-trod:
Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our goods
when we were sper't abroad.
11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves
and ava'ning of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.
13 And to our neighbors thou hast made
of us a laughing stock:
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second Part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:
They mock, they scorn, they nod the head
where ere they go or walk. (hatred) 15 I am abhorr'd continually
to hear these wicked men:
Yea so I blith that all my face
with red is covered then.
16 For why? we hear such flanders,
such false reports and lies: (wrongs)
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.
17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:
18 We turn not back our hearts
nor yet thy paths forsake. (treachery)

Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dems of dragons be :
Covered us with shade of death,
and great adverſey.
If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and help of Idols fought, (out ?)
Would not God then have tried this or he doth know our thought.
Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord,
ways are we slain thus:
leep unto the shambles sent.
ight so they deal with us.
Up Lord, why sleepest thou ? awake,
and leave us not for all:
Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and doſt forget our thrall?
For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last caſt:
belly, like as it were glued
unto the ground cleaves fast.
Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need thee beſtech for thy goodness,
rescue us with speed.

P S A L M xlvi. I. H.
Y heart doth take in hand,
some godly song to ſing:
praise that I shall ſhew therein,
ertaineth to the King.
My tongue ſhall be as quick,
in honour to indite,
the pen of any ſcribe,
at uſeth fast to write.
Faireft of all men,
thy ſpeech is pleasant pure :
God hath bleſſed thee with gifts,
or ever to endure.
Pour thee gird thy ſword,
Prince of might elect :
in honour, glory, and renoun
thy perfon pure is deckt.
forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth, and right :
thy right hand ſhall thee intrust works of dreadful might.
Thine arrows sharp and keen,
their hearts to ſore thaſt sting :
that folk ſhall fall and kneel to thee,
ea all thy foes, O King.
By royal ſeat, O Lord,
ever shall remain :
use the ſcepter of thy Realm
with rightheadneſſe maintain.
Because thou lovit the right,
and doſt the ill detest :
even thy God hath ſointed thee
with joy above the reſt.
With myrrhe and favours ſwear,
my cloathes are all beſpread :
an thou doſt from thy palace paſt,
erein to make thee glad.
Daughters do attend
fine and rich array :

At thy right hand the Queen doth ſtand
in gold and garments gay.
The ſecond Part.
11 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear :
Thou muſt forget thy kindred all,
and fathers houſe moſt dear.
12 Then ſhall the King deſire
thy beauty fair and trim :
For why ? he is the Lord thy God
and thou muſt worship him.
13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to ſee :
And all the wealthy of the land
ſhall make their ſuit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold :
Within her cloſet the doth ſit
all deckt with beaten gold.
15 In robes well wrought with needle
and many a pleſant thing :
With Virgins fair on her to wait,
the cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on every ſide,
Into the palace of the King
and there they do abide.
17 Inſtead of parents left,
(O Queen the caſe ſo stands)
Thou maſt have ſons whom thou maſt ſee
as Princes in all lands.
18 Wherefore thy holy Name
all ages thall record :
The people thall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

P S A L M xlvi. I. H.
THe Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand :
When we with war are much diſmaid,
he is our help at hand. (fear ,
2 Though th'earth remove we will not though hills ſo highland ſteep
Be throuw and hurled here and there,
within the ſea ſo deep.
3 No though the waves do rage ſo fore,
that all the banks it spills :
And though it overflow the ſhore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one fair flood doth ſend abroad
his pleasant streams apace :
To 'freih the city of our God,
and wash his holy place.
5 In midift of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay :
All things againſt her that rebel,
the Lord will truely fay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdoms fear
the people make a noife :
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God purſeth his voice.
7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part
to us he ſits an eye:

Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
Come hear & see with mind & thought,
the working of our God :
What wonders he himself hath wrought,
in all the world abroad.
By him all wars are hush'd and gone,
which countries did conspire :
Their bows he brake, and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.
Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stou:
Amongst the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and power:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

P S A L M xlviij. J. H.

YE people all with one accord;
Clap hands and eke rejoice:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
For high the Lord and dreadful is
with wonders manifold :
A mighty king he is truly,
in all the earth extol'd.
The people shall he make to be,
unto our bondage thrall :
And underneath our feet he shall,
the nations make to fall.
For us the heritage he chose,
which we possess alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his wellbeloved one.
Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skies,
with trumpets royal voice.
Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
For God is King of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.

God on the heathen reigns and sits
upon his holy throne:
The princes of the people have
them joyned every one,
To Abrahams people; for our God
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

P S A L M xlviij. J. H.

Great is the Lord, & with great praise to be advanced still :
Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.
Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The City of the mighty king
on her north-side doth stand.
Within the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge known:

For lo the Kings are gathered, and
together they are gone.
But when they did behold it so,
they wondered, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear.
Great terror there on them did fall,
for very woe they cry :
As doth a woman when she shall go travel by and by.
As thou with Eastern wind the sea
upon the sea doft break:
So they were strok'd; and even as
we heard our fathers speak :
So in the city of the Lord,
we saw as it was told :
Yea in the city which our God
for ever will uphold.
O Lord, we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace,
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.
O Lord, according to thy Name,
for ever is thy praise :
And thy right hand, O Lord, is ful
of righteousness always.
Let, for thy judgments, Sion Mount fulfilled be with joys:
And eke of Juda grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.
Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.
And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.
For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also
our guider shall he be.

ALL people hearken and give ear
to that, that I sha' tel :
Both high and low, both rich and poor,
that in the world do dwel.
For why? my mouth that make discourses
of many things right wise :
In understanding shal my heart
his study exercise.
I wil incline mine ears to know
the parable so dark :
And upon all my doubtful speech,
in meeser on my harp.
Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toil :
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil ?
For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is molt :

y which of their treasures great,

PSALM L. W. W.
mighty God,
th' Eternal hath thus spoke,

And all the world
he will call and provoke :
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West
a From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best.
God will appear
in beauty most excellent :
Our God will come
before that long time be spent:
3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face,
A great tempeit
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and righr, 5 Saying, Go to,
and now my Saints assemble :
My past they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is judge
of all things, more and less.
7 Hear my people,
for I will now reveal:
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceal,
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee, 8 For giving not
all manner offerings to me.
9 I have no need to take of thee at all.
Goats of thy fold,
or Calf out of thy stall.
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods :
On thousand hills,
cattel are mine own goods,
11 I know for mine,
all birds that are on mountains :
All beasts are mine,
which haung the fields and fountains, 12 Hungry if I were
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
13 Eat I the flesh
of great Bulls or Bullocks
Or drink the blood
of Goat, or of the Flocks?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.
15 Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be ;
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honor me.
16 To the wicked,
thus saith h' Eternal God,

Psalm L.

Why dost thou preach
my laws and helts abroad?
37 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused;
And hast it to be
by discipline reformed.
My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate, 18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate, Thou run'it with him
and so your prey do seek:
And art all one
with bands and ruffins eke, 19 Thou giv'it thy self
to backbare and to flandere:
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.
20 Thou firtest misfing,
thy brother for to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongues Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
I like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.
22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord;
And fear not when
he threateneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoil you as a pray.
23 But he that thanks
off'reth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach:
Gods saving health to imbrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

T He God of gods the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the Son doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.
2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear:
The perfect beauty of his grace;
from thence it did appear.
3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
We will call forth, to judge and try,
his folk he doth deile.
5 Bring forth my Saints, saith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
Which are in band and league[with me, T]
my law to love and fear

6 And when these things are tried,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.
7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.
9 Think'ft thou that I do need
thy cattle young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed,
on Goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beasts are mine;
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of neat and kine
that run wild on the hills:

The second Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.
12 Then though I hungered sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store
and all therein is mine?
13 To Buls flesh have I mind,
to eat it doft thou think?
Or such a sweetnes do I find,
the blood of Goats to drink?
14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.
15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame,
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.
16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day:
And yet their works are foul and vain
to them the Lord wil say, 17 With what a face dar'ft thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?
18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou doft pretend is cast behind thy back.

The third Part.

19 When thou a thief doft see,
by theſt to live in wealth:
With him thou runſt and doft agree
likewife to thrive by fealthe.
20 When thou doft them behold,
that wives and maidſ defile,
Thou lik'ſt it wel, and waxſt bold
so ſic that life moft vile,

wide my lips thou dost apply,
lander, and defame:
tongue is taught to craft and lie,
I still doth use the same,
you studiest to revile
friends to thee so near
f slander thou wouldst needs defile
mothers son most dear.

Great while I did wink,
though I did not see:
goest on stil, and so doft think
I am like to thee.
I sure I wil not let strike when I begin;
faults in order I wil set,
open all thy sin.

kingark this I you require,
I have not God in minde:
when I plague you in mine ire
ur help be far to finde.
Ie that doth give to me
sacrifice of praise,
please me wel: and he shall sea
walk in godly ways.

P S A L M H. W. W.
Lord consider my distres,
and now with speed some pity take,
my deface, my faults redres
od Lord for thy great mercies sake.
th me, O Lord, and make me clean
m this unjust and sinful act:
parific yet once again
hainous crime and bloody fact.
morse and sorrow do constrain
e to acknowledge mine excess:
in alas doth still remain
ore my face without release.
thee alone I have offended
mitting evil in thy sight:
if I were therefore condemned,
er were thy judgments just and right,

is too manifest alas
at first I was conceiv'd in sin:
of my mother so born was
d yet vile wretch remain therein,
lo behold, Lord, thou doft love
e inward truth of a pure heart:
before thy wisdom from above
ou haft revealde me to convert.
thou with hysop porge this blot,
all be cleaner then the glass:
if thou wash away my spor,
e Snow in whiteness shall I pas.
herefore, O Lord, such joy me send,
ut inwardly I may finde grace:
that my strength may now amend,
ich thou haft swag'd for my trespass.
urn back thy face and frowning ire,
e I have felt enough thy hand:
purge my sins I thee desire
ich do in number pas the sand.
ake new my heart within my breft,
d frame it to thy holy wil.

Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kil.

The second Part.

- 11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face;
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those joys again,
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low
by mine example shall flee sin.
- 14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue unty
O Lord, which art the only key:
And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise always.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.
- 17 The heavy heart the minde opprest,
O Lord, thou never doft reject:
And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
- 18 Lord, unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy sw:
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the wals and love it still.
- 19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings,
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yes calves and many other things,
upon thine altar wil we lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

- H Ave mercy on me Lord, after thy great abounding grace;
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.
- 3 Yes wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:
For I do know my faults, and stil
my sin is in mine eyne.
- 3 Against thee, thee alone, I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face.
- 4 That in the things that thou haft done
upright thou mayit be tryed:
And eke in judgment that the doom
may pass upon thy fide.
- 3 Behold in wickednes, my kinde
and shape I did receive;
And lo my sinful mother eke,
in sin did me conceive.

- 6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee :
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.
- 7 With hyfop, Lord, besprinkle me
I shall be cleansed so :
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter than the snow.
- 8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice :
That so the bruised bones which thou
haft broken may rejoice.
- 9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord turn away thy face :
And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface :
- 10 O God, create in me a heart,
unspotted in thy sight :
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renue a stably sprite,
- 11 Ne cast me from thy sight nor take thy holy Spirit away :
The comforts of thy saving health
give me again I pray.
- 12 With thy sweet spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinners thy ways, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second Part.

- 13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me :
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
- 14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unclose :
The praises of thy Majesty,
my mouth shall so disclose.
- 15 I would have offered sacrifices
If that had pleased thee :
But pleased with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be.
- 16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice
delightful in Gods eyes :
A broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not despise.
- 17 In thy good will deal gently, Lords to Sion, and withall Grant, that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall.
- 18 Burnt offerings, gifts, and sacrifice
of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Why doft thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise ?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
who's mercies last always ?
2 Why doth thy mind yet still devise,
such wicked wiles to warp ?
Why tongue untrue in forging lies,
islike a razor sharp.

- 3 On mischief why seft thou thy mind
and wilt not walk upright ?
Thou haft more lust false tales to find
than bring the truth to light.
- 4 Thou doft delight in fraud and guile
in mischief, blood, and wrong :
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering fibs
O false deceitful tongue.
- 5 Therefore shall God for aye confound
and pluck thee from thy place :
Thy seed root out from off the ground
and so shall thee deface.
- 6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise thee, Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall
cry out with one accord.
- 7 Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence :
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
- 8 But I as Olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad,
For why ? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.
- 9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice :
I will set forth thy name always,
wherein thy Saints rejoice.

- The foolish man in that which he within his heart hath said :
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denied.
- 2 They are corrupt, and they also
a hidious work have wrought :
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.
- 3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
from heaven all abroad ;
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.
- 4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all :
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.
- 5 Do not all wicked workers know,
that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread ?
the Lord they call not on.
- 6 Eyen there they were afraid and stood with trembling all dismay'd :
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they shoulde be afraid.
- 7 For God his bones that thee believ'd,
hath scattered all abroad :
Thou haft confounded them, for they rejected are of God.
- 8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfil Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore,
my miseries erst were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
to find Israel shall be glad.

P S A L M liv. J. H.
O God give me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodness sake:
to the strength (Lord) of the same,
do my cause betake.
Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
Low down thy self to me, and hear
the words that I do say.

For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.
But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is strait at hand:
With them by whom my soul is staid,
the Lord doth ever stand.

With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make:
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

O Lord, at length do me set free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

P S A L M lv. J. H.
God give ear and do apply
to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.
Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again:
With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great grief doth me constrain.

Because my foes with threats & cries,
oppress me through despight:
And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.
For they in counsel do conspire,
to charge me with some ill:
In their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panted in my brest:
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.
Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror & helmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.

But I did say, Who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair Doye, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things?

8 Lo then I would go far away;
to flee I would not cease:
And I would hide my self and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the hautes,
and not abide behind:
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boisterous wind.
10 Divide them Lord, and from them pull
their devilish double tongue:
For I have spied their City full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day
do close her as a wall: (throughout)
In midst of her is mischief stouter,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud, and guile.

The second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
somewhere I could me hide.
14 But thou it wast, my fellow dear,
which friendship didst prete d';
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief reigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and even tyde,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantane have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand:
Although the number be ful great,
that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first & last doth reign
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full soye.

21 For sure, there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord. (harm)

22 Upon their friends they laid their which were in covenant knite:
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they pass or care no whit.

- 23 While they have war within their hearts
as bitter are their words :
24 Although their words were smooth as oil,
they cut as sharp as swords.
25 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee :
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.
26 But God shall cast them deep in pit,
that thirst for b'ood always :
He will no guileful man permit
to live out half his day's.
27 Though such be quite destroy'd and in thee, O God, I trust ; (gone)
I shall depend thy Grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

PSALM Lvi. J. H.

H ave mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me devour :
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
to swallow me out right :
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride :
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee :
I do not care at all assays,
what flesh can do to me.
5 What things I either did or spake,
they wret them at their will :
And all the counsel that they take,
is how to work me ill.
6 They all consent themselves to hide
close watch for me to lay :
They spie my paths, and snares have thid
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set ?
thou God on them wilt frown :
For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my tears doft look :
Referre them in a glass by thee,
and write them in thy book.
9 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start :
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the Word of God,
to praise it I accord :
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began :
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free,
so God my vows always

And I, O Lord, all times to thee,
will offer thanks and praise.
13 My soul from death thou dost deliver
and keepst my feet upright
That I before thee may ascend with such as live in light.

PSALM Lvii. J. H.

T ake pity for thy promise sake,
have mercy Lord on me :
For why ? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I set my self full fast :
Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand :
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spight,
That to devour me have assaid,
his mercy, truth and might.
5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire :
And with such wicked men I dwell
that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long as sharp as I have seen : (tong)
They wound and cut with their quick
like swords and weapons keen.
7 Set up and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright :
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.
8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit :
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fain in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy always :
My heart I say doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my joy, awake I say,
my lute, my harp, and string :
For I my self before the day,
will rise, rejoice, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God :
And shew his praise that doth excell
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens all are high ;
His truth as high as any star,
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright ;
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

PSALM Lviii. J. H.

Y E Rulers that are put in trust,
to judge of wrong and right :

Psalm Lix, Lx.

31

all your judgements true and just,
not knowing meed or might?
Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consist:
And where ye should true justice use,
your hand to bribes are bent.

The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wife:
And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lies.
In them the poyson and the breath
of Serpents do appear:
Like the Adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear.

Because she will not hear the voice
of one that harmeth well:
Though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excel.

O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:
Betwix that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

Let them consume away and waste,
waters run forth right:
Betwix that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.
As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
One before his time that fell,
and never saw the Sun.

Before the thorns that now are yong
to bushes big shall grow:
The storms of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.
The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.
Then shall the world shew forth & tell
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

PSALM LIX. I. H.

End aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.
O Lord, preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.
For lo they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.
They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.
O Lord of hosts of Israels
arise and strike all lands:
And pity none that do rebel,
and in their mischief stand.

- 6 At night they stir and seek about,
as hounds they houl and grin:
And all the City clean throughour,
from place to place they run.
- 7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords.
They greed my death, and then would say,
what? none doth hear our words?
- 8 But Lord, thou hast their ways elide,
and laugh therest apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.
- 9 The strength that doth our foes wish.
O Lord, doth come from thee: (stand
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.)
- 10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart dora will.

The second Part.

- 11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
left it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drivethem abroad,
and so consume them all.
- 12 For their ill words & truelless tongue,
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.
- 13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth reign.
- 14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place,
they run about and spie.
- 15 They seek about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.
- 16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will prale:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all affaires.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me
O Lord, I sing to thee: (stand Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.)

PSALM LX. I. H.

- 1 O Lord, thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatterest us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take return to us, O God.
- 2 Thy might did move the earth so sore
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereto, O Lord, restore,
for it doth bow and quake.
- 3 With heavy chance thou plagues us
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.
- 4 But yet to such as fear thy Name,
a token thou didst shew

Psalm Lxi, Lxii, Lxiii.

That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

- 1 So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee :
- 2 That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.
- 3 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyful tale :
- 4 I will divid Sichem by pace
and mete our Succoth vale.
- 5 Gilead is given to mine hands,
Manasses mine beside :
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Juda guide.
- 6 In Moab I will walk my feet,
over Edom throw my booo :
And thou Palestine ought it to seek for favour me unto.
- 7 But who will bring me at this ryde unto the city strong ?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong ?
- 8 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land, and coasts ?
Our wars in hand thou wouldest not take,
nor walk among our hosts.
- 9 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain :
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain. (might)
- 10 But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand :
We will tread down and put to flight,
all those that us withstand.

P S A L M Lxi. J. H.

- 1 Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee :
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me.
- 2 From out the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad :
- 3 Of grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee, O God.
- 4 Upon the rock of thy great power
my woful mind repose :
Who are my hopes, my fort, and tower,
my fence against my foes.
- 5 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure :
Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.
- 6 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfil the same :
With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his Name.
- 7 The King shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his days,
That he from age to age shall reign,
evermore always.
- 8 That he may have a dwelling place,
under the Lord for aye ;

O let thy mercy, truth, and grace
defend him from decay.

- 9 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praise unto thy Name :
- 10 That all my vows I may fulfil,
and fully pay the same.

P S A L M Lxii. J. H.

- 1 MY soul so God shall give good he and him alone attend :
For why ? my health and hope to speed
doth whole on him depend.
- 2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my help, and aid ;
He is my stay that no pretence
shall make me much dismayed.
- 3 O wicked folk, how long will ye
use craft ? sure ye must fall :
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
- 4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alway
to put him to the worse :
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
- 5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire :
From all ill fears me to defend,
none but him I require.
- 6 He is my rock, my fort, and tower,
my health is of his grace :
He doth support me that no power
can move me out of place.
- 7 God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust :
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth
God is my only trust.
- 8 O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord :
Pour out your hearts to him, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.
- 9 The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a sleight :
With things most vain do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.
- 10 Trust not in wrong, rob'ry, nor wealth,
Let vain delights be gone : (weak) Though goods well got flow in with fet not your hearts thereon.
- 11 The Lord long since one thing did tell which here to mind I call :
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
- 12 And that thou Lord art good & kind thy mercy doth exceed :
So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

P S A L M Lxiii. J. H.

- 1 O God my God, I watch betime
to come to thee in haste :
For why my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.
- 2 And in this barren wilderness,
where waters therer are none :
My flesh is parcht for thoughts of thee,
for thee I walk alone.

That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength and might,
I was won to behold
within thy Temple bright :
For why ? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched days :
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud, and praise.
And whilst I live I will not fail
to worship thee alway :
In thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
My soul is fill'd as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet :
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.
When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night ryde :
For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyful guide.
My foul doth surely stick to thee ;
thy right hand is my power :
And those that seek my soul to stroy,
them death shall soon devour.

The sword shall them devour each one,
their carcases shall feed
the hungry Foxes, which do run their prey to seek at need.
The King and all men shall rejoice
that do profess Gods Word :
Lyari mouths shall then be stopt,
which have the truth distract'd.

P S A L M Lxiv. J. H.

Lord, unto my voice give ear,
with plaint when I do pray :
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.
Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk :
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill feats do work.
Who whet their tongues as we have seen
men wher and sharp their swords :
They shooe abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.
With privy sleights shoot they their
the upright men to hir. (haſt),
they just unawares to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.

A wicked work they have decree'd,
in counceal thus they cry :
use deceit let us not dread ;
what? Who can it espie ?
What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their heart :
they all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.

But yet all this shall not prevail ;
when they think least upon.
od with his dart shall sure assaile,
and wound them every one.
Their crafts and their ill tongues with full work themselves such blase,

23 Whereby the deſert shall begin,
full great increase to bring. .

That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought :
And praise his witty works, and tell what he to pass hath brought.
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoice ;
full trusting in his might ;
So shall they joy with mind and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

whereby her cloſs do fall :
Thy drops on her thou doſt diſtil,
and bleſſ her fruit wiſhale.
12 Thou deck'ſt the earth of thy good,
with fair and pleasant crop : (from)
Thy clouds diſtil their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop.

13 Whereby the deſert shall begin,
full great increase to bring. .

Psalm Lxvi, Lxvii, Lxviii:

34

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
13 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth :
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

P S A L M Ixvi. T. S.

YE men on earth in God rejoice,
with praise set forth his Name :
Exalt his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.
2 How wonderful, O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art ?
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full sore against their heart.
3 All men that dwell the earth throughout
shall praise the Name of God :
The laud thereof the world about
is shewed and set abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought :
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to pass hath brought.
5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had
On foot to pass both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold :
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controll'd.
7 Ye people give unto our God,
due laud and thanks always :
With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise.
8 Which doth endue our soul with life
and it preserve wile :
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.
9 The Lord doth prove our deeds wi
if that they will abide : (fire,
As workmen do when they desire
to have their metals tried.
10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast :
And there with chains and fetters strong
so lie in bondage fast.
The second Part.
11 Although (I say) thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign :
Though we through fire and water run
of very grief and pain.
12 Yet save thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best :
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.
13 Unto the house resort will I
to offer and to pray :
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.
14 The vow that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart,

The vows I say which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt offerings I will give to thee;
of Oxen fat and Rams :
Yet this my sacrifice shall be of Bullocks, Goats, and Lambs.
16 Come forth and hearken here full so
all ye that fear the Lord :
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.
17 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry :
And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.
18 But if I feel my heart within,
in wicked works rejoice :
Or if I have delight to fin,
God will not hear my voice.
19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require :
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
20 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde :
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

P S A L M Ixvii. J. H.

Have mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace
To shew to us do shou accord,
the brightness of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth :
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.
3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy Name
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoice with mirth :
For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.
5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name :
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall :
And then our God, the God of peace,
shall bless us eke withal.
7 God shall us bless, I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in fear.

P S A L M Ixviii. T. S.

Let God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight :
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blowe smoke away :

In the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily rejoice :
they shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.
Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie :
stol the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

The same is he that is above,
within his holy place :
his father is of fatherless,
and judge of widows case.
Houses he gives, and issue both,
unto the comfortless :
e bringer h bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distress.

When thou didst march before thy folk th' Egyptian from among : (neis
nd brought them through the wilder-
which was both wide and long; (down
The earth did quake, the rain powr'd heard were great claps of thunder :
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in funder.

Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waht,
and if so be it barren wext,
by thee it was refreht.
o Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place :
And for the poor thou didst provide
of thine especial grace.

The second Part.

11 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name :
When as his people triumpha make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
12 For puissant kings for all their power
shall flee and take the foil :
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.

13 And though you were as black as pots,
your hue shall pass the Dove :
Whose wing, and feathers seem to have silver and go'd above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
on Kings, both high and low :
Then shalld it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitful hill,
and in height others pass :
Yet Sion, Gods most holy hill,
doth far excel in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus, ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together ?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong :
The Lord also in Sion

Is present them among.

Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all :
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

18 Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell
in thy Temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that he pour'son us such grace :
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third Part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain :
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.

21 Thus God will wound his enemies head
and break the hairy scalp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk.

22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep :
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name :
And dogs shall have their tongues imbru'd
with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies doft deface .
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.

25 The fingers go before with joy,
the minitrels follow after :
And in the midst the damsel's play,
with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the Congregations
O 'rael, praise the Lord ;
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Juda made their host :
With Zebulon and Nepthalim,
which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou haft wrought in me
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord :
For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

Yes, and strange King, to us subdu'd
shall do like in those days :

I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spearmens ranks
the calves and bulls of might ;
And cause them tribute pay, and drums
all, such aslo to fight.

- 31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :
The Moors most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands)
- 32 Therefore the Kingdoms of the earth
give praise unto the Lord :
Sing Psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.
- 33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright :
Yet by the fearful thunder-claps men may well know his might.
- 34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high,
whose might and power doth far extend
above the cloudy skie.
- 35 O God, thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore :
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.

PSALM lxix. J. H.

- S ave me, O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast :
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am sore agast.
- 3 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground :
I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like be drownd.
- 4 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie -
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.
- 5 My foes that guiltless do oppress
my soul, with hate are led :
An number sure they are no less than hairs are on my head.
- 6 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad :
They do compel me to restore the thing I never had.
- 7 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canst tell ;
And all the faults that I commit,
so thee are known full well.
- 8 O God of Hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee :
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
- for ought that chanceth me.
- 9 It is for thee and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame :
- sight of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.
- 10 My mother sons, my brethren all,
forsake me on a row :
had as a strangers they me call,
my face they will not know.
- 11 One thy house such real I bear,
that it doth pine me much :
Their checks and smarts at thee so here,
- my very heart doth grieve,

The second Part.

- 11 Though I do fast my flesh to chafe,
if I do weep and moane :
Yea in my teeth this thing is cast,
they pass not thereupon.
- 12 If I for pain and grief of heart
in sackcloth use to walk :
Then they anon will it pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.
- 13 Both high and low and all the throng
that fit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongues
of me they talk and prate.
- 14 The drunkards which in wine delight
it is their chief pastime
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.
- 15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it please thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.
- 16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep ;
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.
- 17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd
and depth my soul devour,
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.
- 18 O Lord of hosts to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind ;
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord have me in thy mind.
- 19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away :
I am opprest on every side,
in haaste give ear, I say.
- 20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose :
Because of their great tyranny
acquit me from my woes.

The third Part.

- 21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou know it and thou canst tell :
For those that seek and work the same
thou seest them all full well.
- 22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon : (heavily)
But find no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me nor one.
- 23 But in my meat they gave me galls
too cruel for to think :
And gave me in my thirst withal
strong vinegar to drink.
- 24 Lord turn their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein :
And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.
- 25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see ;
Bow down their backs and do them bind
in thrall dom for to be.
- 26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
cast it on them may fall :

thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold upon them all.

As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expel:
at none thereof posses their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.
If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
and if that thou dost wound that same,
they seek to hurt him more.

Then let them heap up mischief stills, (sith they are all pervert)
out of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

And raze them clean out of thy book
of life, o f hope, of truft:
but for their name they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth Part.

Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full sore opprest:
by help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redreft.

That I may give thy name the praise
and shew it with a song;
will extol the fame always,
with hearty thanks among.

Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such minde thy grace hath born)
en either oxe or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoice them sure:
ye that seek the Lord, behold
your life for aye shall dure.

For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain:
Prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with flood and stream:
is praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that live in them.

For sure our God will Sion save,
and Juda's cities build:
such folk poſſeſſion there shall have
her fireers ſhall all be fill'd.

His ſervants feed ſhall keep the fame,
all ages out of minde:

And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place ſhall finde.

PSALM LXX. J. H.

God to me take heed,
o'f help I thee require:
Lord of hosts with haſte and speed,
help I thee desire.
With ſkame confound them all,
that ſeek my foul to spill:
rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wiſh me ill.

Confound them that apply,
and ſeek to work me ſhaueſt

And at my harm do laugh and cry,
ſo ſo, there goes the game.
4 But let them joyful be in thee with joy and wealth:
Which only truſt and ſeek to ahee,
and to thy ſaving health.

5 That they may ſay always,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud and praife
be given to thee, O Lord.
6 Bug I am weak and poor,
come Lord thine aid I lack:
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make ſpeed and be not flack.

PSALM LXXI. J. H.

MY Lord my God in all diſtreſs,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my foul opprefſ,
nor once take hold on me,
2 As thou art juſt defend me, Lord,
and rid me ouer of dread:
Give ear and to my ſuit accord,
and ſend me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times reſort:
Thy promife is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.
4 Save me, my God, from wicked menſ,
and from their strength and power.
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I truſt,
thou Lord of Hoſts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a luſt,
full to depend on thee.
6 Thou haſt me kept even from my birh,
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praife with miſt
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monſter ſeldom ſeen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now and ſtill haſt been
my fence and aid fo' throng.
8 Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack thy glory and thy praife:
And eke my tongue ſhall not be flack
to honour thee always.

9 Refufe me nor, O Lord, I ſay,
when age my limbi doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
do not my foul forſake.
10 Among themſelves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit:
And they againſt me do conſpire,
that for my foul laid wait.

The ſecond Part.

11 Lay hand and take him now, they ſaid,
for God from him is gone:
Di patch him quite, for to his aid
(I wiſh)there cometh none.
12 Do not abſent thy ſelf away,
O Lord when need ſhall haſt

But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Oppress them with rebuke also,
that faint would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all affaires
Still more and more, each time and tyde,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send :
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one with thy good help, O God :
The saving health of thee alone,
to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the care,
and doft instruct me still :
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.
18 And as in youth frons wanton rage,
thou didft me keep and stay :
Forfake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

19 That I thy strength & might may show
to them that now be here :
And that our seed thy power may know,
hereafter many a year.
20 O Lord thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see :
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
O I who is like to thee ?

21 Thou madft me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didft me save :
Yea thou didft help and me restore.
and tookst me from the grave.
22 And thou mine honour doft increase,
my dignity maintain :
Yes thou doft make all strife to cease,
and comfortft me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise,
I will with viol sing.
My harp shall sound thy praise always,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee.
And eke my sou will much rejoice,
for thou haft made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound,
and speak it daily still :
For grief and shame do them confound,
that seek to work me ill.

P S A L M lxxii. J. H.

Lord, give thy judgements to the King,
therein instruct him well
And with his son that princely thing,

Lord let thy justice dwell
2 That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright :

And so defend through equity,
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high
unto thy folk give peace :
And eke let little hills apply,
in justice to encrasie.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them strong :
And eke destroy for ever more,
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might :
So long as Sun doth shine by day,
or else the Moon by night.

6 Lord make the King unto the just,
like rain to fields new mown :
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace :
Until the Moon shall leave to prime,
waite, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout :
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in desarts dwell,
shall kneel to him full thick :
And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The Lords of all the iles thereby,
great gifts to him shall bring :
The Kings of Sabe and Arabic,
give many a costly thing.

The second Part.

11 All Kings shall seek with one accord
in his good grace to stand :
And all the people of the world
shall serve him at his hand.

12 For he the needy sort doth saves
that unto him do call :
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poor,
that are with need opprest :
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their sou's to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread
from fraud, from wrong, from might :
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Sabas gold :
He shall be honored as a King,
and daily be exalted.

16 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bear such throng :
That it like Cedar-trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall pass :

every it shall far exceed,
And spring as green as grass.
For ever they shall praise his Name,
Till that the Sun is light :
think them happy through the same,
folk shall bless his might.

Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
Israels God each one :
He doth every wondrous thing,
He himself alone.
And blessed be his holy Name,
All times eternally :
All the earth may praise the same,
amen, Amen, say I.

P S A L M Ixxiii. T. S.
How ever it be, yet God is good
And kind to Israel :
To all such as safely keep
Their conscience pure and well.
Like a fool I almost slipp'd,
My feet began to slide :
Here I wist, even at a pinch,
My steps awry gan glide.

Or when I saw such foolish men,
Grudg'd and did disdain,
Wicked men all things should have Without turmoil or pain.
They never suffer pangs nor grief,
If death should them smite :
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
And ever in good plight.

And free from all adversity,
When other men be shent :
With the rest they take no part
Of plague or punishment.
Therefore presumption doth imbrace
Their necks, as doth a chain ;
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
With rapine and disdain.

They are so fed, that even for fat
Their eyes oft times out-start :
As for worldly goods they have
More then can wish their heart.
Their life is most licentious,
Boasting much of their wrong :
Which they have done to simple men,
And ever pry'd among.

The heavens and the living Lord
They spare not to blaspheme :
Adprate they do of worldly things,
No wight they do esteem.
The people of God oft times turn back
To see their prosperous state :
And almost drink the self same cup,
And follow the same rate.

The second Part.

1 How can it be that God (say they)
Should know or understand,
These worldly things, such wicked men
Be lords of sea and land ?
2 For we may see how wicked men
In riches still increase :
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
And live in rest and peace.

- 13 Then why do I from wickedness,
my fantastie refrain ?
And wash my hands with innocents,
And cleanse my heart in vain ?
- 14 And suffer scourges every day,
As subject to all blame :
And every morning from my youth Sustain rebuke and shame ?
- 15 And I had almost said as they,
Misliking mine estate :
But that I should thy children judge,
As folk unfortunate.
- 16 Then I bethought me how I might
This matter understand :
But yet the labour was too great
For me to take in hand.
- 17 Until the time I went into Thy holy place, and then
I understood right perfectly
The end of all these men.
- 18 And namely how thou settest them
Upon a slippery place :
And at thy pleasure and thy will Thou dost them all deface.
- 19 Then all men muse at that strange sight
To see how suddenly
They are destroid, dispatcht, consum'd,
And dead so horribly.
- 20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
So shall their wealth decay :
Their famous names in all mens sight,
Shall ebbe and pass away.

The third Part.

- 21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
My mind was much opprest ;
22 So fond was I, and ignorant,
And in this point a beast.
- 23 Yet nevertheless by thy right hand,
Thou holdst me always fast :
24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
To glory at the last.
- 25 What thing is there that I can wish,
But thee in heaven above ?
And in the earth there is nothing,
Like thee that I can love.
- 26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
But God doth fail me never :
For of my health God is the strength,
My portion eke for ever.

- 27 And lo, all such as thee forsake,
Thou shalt destroy each one :
And those that trust in any thing,
Saving in thee alone.
- 28 Therefore I will draw near to God,
And ever with him dwell :
In God alone I put my trust,
Thy wonders I will tell.

P S A L M Ixxiv. I. H.

Why art thou (Lord) so long from us
In all this danger deep ?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
At thine own pasture sheep ?
Lord call thy people to thy thoughts,
Which have been thine so long :

The which thou haft redeem'd & brought from bondage sore and strong.
 3 Have mind therefore and think upon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
 4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.
 5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signs on every wall,
their banners splaid abroad.
 6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and words of these within thy Temple now.
 7 The feeling sawd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones:
With axes, hammers, bills and swords,
they beat them down at once.
 8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil,
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the soil.
 9 And thus they say within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods house, through the land.
 10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.
 11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (shame Shall they always blaspheme thy Name,
and rail on thee so long?
 12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
O pluck it out and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second Part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore haft been:
Yea thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.
 14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the Serpents head,
that he therein did die.
 15 Yea thou didst break the head so great
of Whales that are so fell:
And gav'it them to the folk to eat;
that in the deserts dwel. (rise) 16 Thou mad'it a spring with streams to
from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be dry.
 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they are begun:

Thou ses to serve us with their shine,
the light and eke the Sun:
 18 Thou didst appoint the ends and co
of all the earth about:
Both summer-heats, and winter-frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.
 19 I think on (O Lord) no time forges
thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.
 20 O let no cruel beasts devour
the Turtle that is true:
Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poor that much do rue.
 21 Regard thy covenant and behold
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forlorn and old,
our Realm as now doth stand:
 22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needy aye
give praise unto thy Name.
 23 Rise (Lord), let be by thee maintain
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolith one.
 24 The voice forget not of thy foes:
for the presumption hie,
Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

P A L M lxxv. J. H.

UNTO thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.
 2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.
 3 I did to the mad people say,
Deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on hie:
 4 I said unto them, Set not up
your raised horns on hie:
And see that you do with stiff neck,
not speak presumptuously.
 5 For neither from the eastern parts
nor from the western side:
Nor from forsaken wilderness,
promotion doth proceed.
 6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the Throne.
 7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein,
himself doth pour abroad:
 8 As for the lees and filthy dregs,
that do remain of it:

the wicked of the earth shall drink,
and suck them every whie.

But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore :
and will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.

10 In funder break the horns of all ungodly men will I :
But then the horns of righeous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore :
As in beginning was , is now,
and shall be evermore.

P S A L M lxxvi. J. H.

To all that now in Jury dwell,
the Lord is clearly known :
His name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.

At Salem he his tenes hath pighs,
to tarry there a space :
Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield :
And brake the ray to overthrow
in barrel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honor, Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountain high.

5 But now the proud are spoid through and they are fain on sleep : (shee, p)
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove,
As half on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath

To bide thy fight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath : (heard)

8 When thou doft make thy judgments from heaven through the ground,
Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, doft stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reign
shall turn unto thy praise :
Hereafter (Lord) do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows, and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be :
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from Princes great of birth,
And full of terror is his fight
to all the Kings on earth.

P S A L M lxxvii. J. H.

I With my voice to God do cry,
with heart, and hearty cheezz
My voice to God I lift on hi,
and he my suit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took :
But stretch: my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more :
I speake, but could not make an ends,
my breath was flopt so fore.

4 Thou holdst mine eyes always from rest
that I always awaket:
With fear I am so fore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The days of old in minde I cast,
and oft did think upon :
The times and ages that are past
full many years agone.

6 By night my song: I call to minde
once made thy praise to show :
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirites do search to know-

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus :
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unco us ?

8 What, is his goodness clean decayed
for ever and a day ?
Or is his promise now delaid,
and doch his truth decay ?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold ?

Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold ?

10 At last I said, My weakness is the cause of this mistrust :
Gods mighty hand can help all this
and change it when he list.

The second Part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord ,
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise :
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad :
What one hath strength to match thy might
of thee, O Lord our God ?

14 Thou art a God that doft forth shew
thy wonders every hour :
And so doft make the people know
thy verite and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doft defend with strength and stretched arm :
The sons of Jacob that descend -
and Josephs seed, from harm.

16 The waters Lord perceived thee,

¶ the waters saw thee well :
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

¶ 7 The clouds that were both thick and did rain full plenteously : (black)
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did fly.

¶ 8 Thy thunder in the air was heard,
thy lightening from above,
With flakes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.

¶ 19 Thy ways within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep ;
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep :
so Thou ledst thy folk upon the land,
as sheep on every side :
Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guide.

P S A L M lxxviii. I. H.

A Teend my people to my law,
and to my words incline :
¶ My mouth shall speak strange parables,
and sentences divine.
3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old : (learn'd)
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.
4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after :
Who should Gods power to their race
and all his works of wonder. (praise)
5 To Jacob he commandment gave,
how Israel should live :
Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.

6 That they and their posterity,
that were not sprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law
and teach their seed also.
7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above :
And nor forget to keep his laws,
and his precepts in love.
8 Not being, as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight :
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbors for to spoil :
Shooting their darts in day of war,
and yet they took the foil ?
10 For why ? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made :
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade.

11 But put into oblivion,
his counsel and his wil :
Endall his works most magnifique
which he declared stil.

The second Part,

¶ 3 What wonders to our fore-fathers
did he himself disclose :

In Egypt land within the field,
that call'd is Thaneos ?

13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might pass at once :
And made the water stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright :
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink :
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of Rocks
that were both dry and hard :
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did encruse :
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted God within their hearts
like people of mistrust, Requiring such a kind of meat,
as served to their lust.
19 Saying with murmuration,
in their unfaithfulness :
What ? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness ?

20 Behold he brake the stony rocks,
and floods forthwith did flow :
But can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also ?

21 When God heard this he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed :
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third Part,

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succor them
in their necessity.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds
forthwith they brake in sunder :
24 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eat)

25 When earthly men with Angels food
were fed at their request :

26 He had the East winde blow away,
and brought in the South-West.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand :

28 Which he did cast amid the place,
where all their tents did stand,

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fill :
Yet, more and more they did desire
to serve their lusts and wils.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fel :

31 And flew the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israels.

Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
or all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
Their dayes therefore were shortened,
and made their honour vain:
their years did waste and pass away,
with terror and with pain.

But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by:
Remembering that he was their strength
their help and God most high.
Though in their mouths they did curse
and flatter with the Lord: (glose)
and with their tongues, &c in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth Part.

For why? their hearts were nothing bent
to him, nor to his trade:
or yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.
Ver was he stil so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die:
that he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
As many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise,
and would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.

Considering they were but flesh,
and even as a wind,
passing away, and cannot wel
return by his own kind.

How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke?
How did they move and stirr the Lord
to plague them with his stroke?
Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God eft-soon:
describing to the holy Lord,
what things they would have done.

Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he delivered them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.

Nor how he wrought his miracles;
(as they themselves beheld)
in Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood:
that no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
and fill'd their countrey ful of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth Part.

Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:
had all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper. (vines)
With hail-stones he deftroid their
so that they were all lost;

And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

48 And yet with hail-stones once again
the Lord their cattel smote:
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunderbolts st. hot.

49 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way;
and spared not the leek:
But gave unto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.

51 He struck also the first-born all,
that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all fear both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of sea
were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out unto the coaste
of his own holy land, Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high
they stirr'd and tempted stil:
And would not keep his Testament,
nor yet obey his Will.

57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray:
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and thart away.

The sixth Part.

58 And grieved him with their hil-alures,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his brest:
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo, where he was Right convervant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand:
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wooth with his heritage:

63 Their

- 63 Their young men were devour'd with match had no marriage. (fire)
- 64 And with the fword the priests also did perih every one:
And not a widow left alive,
    their death for to bemonie.
- 65 And then the Lord began to wake,
    like one that slept a time:
And like a valiant man of war,
    refreshed after wine.
- 66 With Emrods in their hinder parts,
    he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
    that was perpetual.
- 67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
    of Joseph did refuse:
- 68 As for the tribe of Ephraim,
    he would in no wise chuse.
- 69 But chose the tribe of Jehuda,
    whereas he thought to dwel.
Even the noble mount Sion,
    which he did love so wel.
- 70 Whereas he did his Temple bujld,
    both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he had made
    for ever to endure.
- 71 Then chose he David,him to serve,
    his people for to keep:
Whom he took up and brought away,
    even from the folds of sheep.
- 72 As he did follow th'Ews with young,
    the Lord did him advance:
To feed his people Israel,
    and his inheritance.
- 73 Thus David with a faithful heart
    his flock and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
    did govern them indeed.

PSALM Lxxix I. H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil:
Jerusalem an heap is made,
    thy Temple they defile.

2 The bodies of thy Saints most dear,
    abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee fear,
    the beasts devour and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
    as waters spile they have:
So that there is not one of them
    to lay their dead in grave.

4 Thus are we made a laughing-stock,
    almost the world throughout:
The enemies at us jest and mock,
    which dwel our coasts about.

5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thineit e;
    against us ever fume:

6 And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
    thy folk for to consume?
Upon those people pour the same,
    which did thee never know:
All Realns that call not on thy Name,
    consume and o'er it row.

- 7 For they have got the upper hand;
    and Jacobs seed destroid:
His habitation and his land,
    they have left waste and void.
- 8 Bear not in mind our former faults;
    with speed some pity show:
And aid us Lord in all assaults,
    for we are weak and low.

The second Part.

- 9 O God that giv'ft a' health and grace,
    on us declare the same:
Weigh not our works,our fins defact,
    for honor of thy Name.
- 10 Why sha'l the wicke i bil alway,
    to us a people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoice and say,
    where is their God become?
- Require(O Lord)as thou seest goodz
    before our eyes in fight,
Of all these folk thy servants blood,
    which they spile in despight.
- 11 Receiv'ing thy fight in hafte,
    the clamours,grief, and wrong
Of such as are in pris'on caff,
    sustaining irons strong.
- Thy force and strength to celebrate,
    Lord set them out of band,
Which unto death are destinate,
    and in their enemies hand.
- 12 The nations which have been so bold,
    as to b'aspheme thy Name:
Into their laps with seven fold,
    repay again the same.
- 13-15 we thy folk and pasture sheep,
    will praise thee evermore:
And teach all ages for to keep,
    for thee like praise in store.

PSALM LXXX. I. H.

- THou Herd that Israel doft keep,
    give ear and take good heed:
Which leadeft Joseph like a sheep,
    and doft him watch and feed.
- 2 Thou Lord,I say whose seat is set on Cherubims most bright:
Shew forth thy self and do not let,
    send down thy beams of light.
- 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
    Manasses eke likewise:
To shew thy power do thou begin,
    come help us,Lord arise.
- 4 Direct our hearts unto thy graces,
    convert us Lord to thze:
Shew us the brightness of thy face,
    and then ful safe are we.
- 5 Lord God of hosts,of Israel,
    how long wilt thou,I say,
Against thy folk in anger swel,
    and will not hear them pray?
- 6 Thou doft them feed with forrows deep
    their bread with tears they eat:
And drink the tears that they do weep,
    in measure ful and great.

thou hast us made a very strife
those that dwel about ?
that our foes do love a life,
they laugh and jeft it out.
take us (Lord) unto thy grace,
conver our hearts to thee :
forth to us thy joyful face,
and we ful safe shall be.

from Egypt where it grew not wel,
you broughtt a vine ful dear :
the heathen folk thou didst expel,
and thou didst plant it there.
Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots ful fast :
it did spring and grow apace,
and fill'd the land at last.

The second Part.

The hills were covered about
with shade that from it came:
eke the Cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.
Why then didst thou her wals destroy ?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast :
at all the folk that pas thereby,
thy vine may spoil and wait.

The Boar out of the wood so wild,
both dig and root it out.
furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.
O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime :
old, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of thine.

Thy plant, I say, shone Israel,
whom thy right hand hath see,
the same which thou didst love so wel,
O Lord, do not forget.
They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
and through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long :
and with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame :
then wil we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

O Lord of hosts through thy good convert us unto thee : (grace)
hold us with a pleasant face,
and then ful safe are we.

P S A L M Lxxxi. J. H.

O E light and glad, to God rejoice,
D which is our strength and stay :
joyful and lift up your voice,
to Jacobs God, I say.
Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyful Psalms to sing :
take up with Harp and Lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moon:
with trumpets of the best :
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.
4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade :
A law that must be kept ful wel,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed
when he, from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed
should stil observe the same.
6 When God I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land :
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not understand.
7 I from hit shoulders took (faith he)
the burthen clean away :
And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I holp thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withal
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove :
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with mirth ing thou didst move.
10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words ful wel,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second Part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve,
of any land abroad :
Nor in no wise to bow or serve
a strange or forreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake :
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardness of their heart,
To walk in their own counsel still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people woud have heard
the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard,
to walk within my way !
16 How soon would I confound their foes
and bring them down ful low:
And turn my hand upon all those,
that would them overthrow !

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him ful,
But of his folk the time and age
should flourish everlastly.
18 I would have fed them with the crop,
and bins of the wheas :

And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills should eat.

PSALM lxxxi. I. H.

- A Mid the press with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with judges of the land.
How long (saith he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed,
the wicked to regard?
Whereas of due you should defend
the fatherless and weak:
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.
If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.
But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see, or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.
For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some,
for gain are sold and bought.
I had decreed it in my sight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for love I did you call.
But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.
Up, Lord, and let thy strength be known and judge the world with might:
or why? all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

PSALM lxxxi. I. H.

- D O not (O God) refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.
For why, behold thy foes, and see
how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on high.
Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsel doth conspire.
Come on, say they, let us expel,
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.
They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a parts
they are in league and band.
The sons of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also:

- The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers others mo.
7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Ashur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lot's posterity.
9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:
As to Sisera and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.
10 Whom thou in Endor didst dash and waffe them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The Second Part,

- 11 Make them now and their lords
like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zeba and Zalmunna were
the Kings of Midian.
12 Which said, Let us throughout the
in all the coasts abroad, Possess and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.
13 Turn them, O God, with storms as
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff which men do cast,
with windes to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forrests spiles:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills.

- 15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and shoure,
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire
and learn to seek thy Name.
17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie,
to perish eke withall.
18 That they may know and feel full
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excel,
and reign throughout the world.

PSALM lxxxiv. I. H.

- H OW pleasant is thy dwelling place
O Lord of hosts to me!
The Tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant Lord they be!
2 My Soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad,
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.
3 The sparrows finde a room to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.

These birds full nigh thine Alter may have place to sit and sing :
Lord of hosts, thou art I say,
my God and eke my King.

O they be blest that may dwell
within thy house always :
or they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.
Yea happy sure likewise are they whose stay and strength thou art :
Whereto thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still :
but as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.
From strength to strength they walk full no faintness there shall be : (full)
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.

O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray :
I let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.
O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard, and so draw near :
Lord, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

For why ? within thy Courts one day
is better to abide,
than other where to keep or stay.
A thousand days beside.
Ich rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
an in the tents of wickednesse
to scutle mine abode.
For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give :
All no good thing shall be with-hold
from them that purely live.
O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,
as is persuadid in his breft,
to trust all times in thee.

P S A L M Ixxxv. J. H.
You haft been merciful indeed,
O Lord unto thy land :
Thou restordid Jacob's seed,
from thralldome out of hand.
The wicked ways that they were in thou didst them clean remit :
Thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredid it.
Thine anger eke thou didst allswage,
that all thy wrath was gone :
So didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee :
All thy wrath from us apart,
and angry ceaste to be.
Why? shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
Shall thy wrath it self extreid
upon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee ?

7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodnesse to our wealth ; Shew forth to us, and do not spare
thine aid and saving health.
8 I will hear what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his Saints, that never they return to foolishnes.

9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear :
Whereby great glory in our land
shall dwell and flouris there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall meet
in one to take their place :
And peace shall justice with kisse greer,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring space
and flourish pleasantly :
So righteousnesse shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.
12 Yea God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing :
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.
13 Before his face shall justice go,
much like a guide or stay :
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

P S A L M Ixxxvi. J. H.
L Ord bow thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by :
With grievous pain and grief opprest,
full poor and weak am I.
2 Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be :
And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me express'd
defend me eke withall :
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soul,
that now with pain is pin'd :
For unto thee (Lord) I extoll
and lift my soul and mind.

5 For thou art good and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free :
And eke thy mercy plentiful,
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear :
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain.
For why? I know and well do prove,
thou answerest me again.
8 Among the gods (O Lord) is none
With thee to be compar'd.

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.
The second Part.
 9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.
 10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.
 11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O joy my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.
 12 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord:
And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.
 13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great, and doth excell:
Thou sent my soul at liberty,
out from the lower hell.
 14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.
 15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.
 16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.
 17 On me some signe of favour show:
that all my foes may see,
And be ashamed, because (Lord) thou
doft help and comfort me.

P S A L M Lxxxvii. J. H.

THAT City shall full well indure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.
 2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.
 3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou Ciy of our God.
 4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the fame:
And Babylon shall eke apply,
and learn to know thy Name.
 5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopia likewise:
A peop'e old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.
 6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear Of Sion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.
 8 The trumpeters, with such as sing,
there in great plenry be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compact all in thee.

P S A L M Lxxxviii. J. H.

LORD God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.
 2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on hie: Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.
 3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.
 4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall,
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.
 5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be
with them which are slain.
 6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou haft clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'ft them not.
 7 Yea like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.
 8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me do lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and tire.
 9 Thou purst my friends far off from me,
and mak'ft them hate me sore:
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
 10 My sight doth fail through grief:
I call to thee O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.
The second Part.
 11 Doft thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the fame?
 12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroid,
thy truth her honour have?
 13 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?
 14 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace:

prayer eke ere it be day
shall come before thy face.
Why doft thou, Lord, abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee ?
d now, O Lord, why doft thou hide
thy face away from me ?
I am afflicted, dying still,
from youth, this many a year :
y terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled mind I bear.
The furies of thy wrathful rage
fall sore upon me fall :
y terrors eke do not asswage,
but me oppress wifhall.
All day they compass me about,
as waters at the tide :
d all at once with streams full stont
beset me on each side.

Thou settest far from me my friends
and lovers every one :
a and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

P S A L M lxxxix. J. H.
O sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall never spare :
d with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.
For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain :
that thou doft the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.
To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and beft :
y servant David to perfwade.
I swore and did profeft.
Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and ftablish it full fast :
d still uphold thy Throne alway,
from age to age to last.

The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord :
y faints within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.
Who with the Lord is equal then,
in all the clouds abroad ?
mong the fons of all the gods,
what one is like our God ?

God in affembly of his Saints
is greatly to be dread :
d over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.
Lord God of hosts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee ?
n every fide, moft mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.
The raging sea by thine advice, thou ruleft at thy will :
nd when the waves thereof arife,
thou mak'ft them calm and still.
And Egypt(Lord) thou haft subdu'd,
and thou haft it deftroyd :
a, thou thy foes with mighty arm
haft scatter'd all abroad,

The Second Part.

11 The heavens are thine, & still have been
likewise the earth and land :
The world, and all that is therein,
thou foundedft with thy hand :
12 Both North & South, with East & West
thy felf didft make and frame :
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.

13 Thine arm is strong and full of power
all might therein doth lie :
The strength of thy right hand each howe
thou liftest up on hie :
14 In righteousness and equity
thou haft thy seat and place :
Mercy and truth are full with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is bleſt that knows aright
thy present power O God :
For in the favour of thy fight
they walk full safe abroad.
16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoice :
And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noife.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie :
Thy goodness eke that hath us ftaid,
shall lift our horn on hie.
18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring :
The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints
in visions thou didft show :
And thus then didft thou say to them
thy mind to make them know :
20 A man of might I have ered,
your King and guide to be
And set him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third Part

21 My fervant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out :
And with my holy oyl anointing
him King of all the rouē.

22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain :
And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.

23 The enemies shall not him oppreſs
they shall him not devour :
Ne yet the fons of wickedness
on him have any power.
24 His foes likewise I will deftroy
before his face in fight :
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withal,
shall still upon him lie :
And in my name his horn shall be lifted up on high.

26 His Kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land :
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
27 He shall depend with all his heart on me, and thus shall I say :
My Father and my God thou art, my rock of health and stay.
28 As my first-born I will him take, of all on earth that springs :
His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.
29 My mercy shall be with him still, as I my self have told :
My faithful covenant to fulfill, my mercy I will hold.
30 And eke his seed I will sustain for ever strong and sure :
So that his seed shall still remain while heaven doth endure.

The fourth Part.

31 If that his sons forsake my Law, and so begin to swerve :
And of my judgements have none awe, nor will not them observe.
32 Or if they will not use aright my statutes to them made :
And let all my commandments light, and will not keep my trade.
33 Then with the rod will I begin, their doings to amend :
And so will scourge them for their sin, if that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet and my goodness, I will not take him fro :
Nor handle him with craftiness, and so my truth forego.
35 But sure my covenant I will hold, with all that I have spoke :
No word the which my lips have told, shall alter or be broke.
36 Once swore I by my holiness, and that perform will I :
With David I shall keep promise, to him I will not lie.
37 His seed for evermore shall reign, and eke his throne of might, As doth the Sun, it shall remain for ever in my sight.
38 And as the Moon within the skie for ever standeth fast :
A faithful witness from on hie, so shall his kingdom last.
39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject, and now thou changest cheer :
Yea thou art wroth with thine elect, thine own anointed dear.
40 The covenant with thy servant made, Lord thou hast quite undone :
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royal crown.

The fist Part.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with his walls thou dost confound : (mights)

Thou bearest eke his bulwarks down, and break'st them to the ground :
42 That he is sore destroy'd and torn of comers by throughout :
And so is made a mock and scorn to all that dwell about.
43 Thou their right hand hast lifted that him so sore annoy :
And all his foes that him devour, lo thou hast made to joy.
44 His swords edge thou dost take that should his foes withstand :
To him in war no victory thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
45 His glory thou dost also waste ; his throne, his joy, his mirth, By thee are overthrown, and cast full low upon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut off and made full his youth and lusty days, And rais'd of him an ill report, with shame and great dispraise.
47 How long away from me, O Lord, for ever wilt thou turn ? And shall thine anger still alway, in fire consume and burn ?
48 O call to minde, remember then, my time consumeth fast : Why hast thou made the soures of m as things in vain to waste ?
49 What man is he that liveth here, and death shall never see ? Or from the hand of Hell his soul shall he deliver free ?
50 Where is (O Lord) thine old good so oft declar'd before, Which by thy truth and uprightnesse to David thou hast swore ?
51 The great rebukes to minde I call that on thy servant lie : The railings of the people all borne in my brest have I :
52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies blasphemed have thy Name : The stups of thine anointed One they cease not to defame.
53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts both now and eke for aye : Through skie and earth, and all the Amen, Amen, I say.

P S A L M n o . I . N .

T HOU Lord hast been our sure deff our place of ease and rest : In all times past, yea so long since, as cannot be exprest.
5 Ere there was made mountain or the earth and world abroad : From age to age, and always still, for ever thou art God.
5 Thou grindest man through grief to dust, or clay, and then, And then thou saist again, Return again ye sonnes of men.

the lasting of a thousand years,
What is it in thy sight
yesterday it doth appear,
as a watch by night.

soon as thou doft scatter them,
then is their life and trade
as a sleep, and like the grass,
whose beauty soon doth fade.
which in the morning shineth full but fadeth by and by : (bright
is cut down ere it be night.
it withered, dead and dried.

for through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayed :
of thy servent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
the wicked works that we have wrought
you seift before thine eye :
privy faults, yea eke our thoughts
by countenance doth spie.

for through thy wrath our days do hereof doth nought remaine : (waste,
years consume as words or blasts,
and are not call'd again.
our time is three score years and ten,
but we do live on mold :
we see fourscore, surely then,
we count him wondrous old.

The second Part.

er of this time the strength & chief
the which we count upon,
nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone. (there no once doth know what strength is that might thine anger hath :
in his heart who doth thee fear,
according to thy wrath ?

trust us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our daies remain :
then we may our hearts apply
the wisdom to attain.
return, O Lord, how long will thou
with on in wrath proceed ?
favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be,
times so long as life doth last,
a heart rejoice will we.
as thou haft plagued us before,
now also make us glad :

for the years wherein full sore
affliction we have had.
let thy work and power appear
on thy servants light :
shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.
ord let thy grace and glory stand
in us thy servants thus :
firm the works we take in hand,
and prosper them to us.

PSALM xcii. J. H.
that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell :

In shadow of the mightiest grace,

at rest shall keep him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold
I to the Lord will say :
My God is he, in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid :
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.
4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there :
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright :
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast :
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.

7 Yes at thy fide as thou doft stand,
a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard ;
That even like to their deserts
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only lust to stay my hope on thee :
And in the high'it I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall be well :
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou doft dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all,
with charge commanded he :
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon :
So that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any stome.

13 Upon the Lions thou shalt go,
the Adder fell and long :
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusseth unto me,
I will acquit him quite :
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give :
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of yeares and dayes of
I will fulfill his time : (wealth
The goodneſſe of my ſaving health
I will declare to him.

PSALM xcii. J. 4.

IT is a thing both good and meet,
to praise the highest Lord :

And to thy Name, O thou most High,
so sing with one accord.
2 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
before ere day be light :
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on Lute and Harp so sweet :
With all the mirth you can invent,
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me to rejoice
in things so wrought by thee :
And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy-works to see.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great,
are all thy works so stout ?
So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.
6 The man unwise hath not the wit,
these things to pass to bring :
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grass do spring fall fast :
They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty, Lord, most High,
yea thou dost reign therefore:
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.
9 For why ? O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say :
How all that work iniquity,
shall perish and decay.
10 But thou like as an Unicorn shalt lift mine horn on high :
With fresh and new prepared oyle,
thine oynted King am I.
11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame :
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.
12 The just shall flourish up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow :
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God :
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit shall bring both fat and well beseen :
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughs and branches green.
15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will :
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

P S A L M xciii. J. H.

The Lord as King alott doth reign,
with glory goodly dight :
And he to shew his strength most main,
hath girt himself with might,

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath
and shaped it so faire,
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.
3 E. e that the world was made or wroug
thy seat was set before :
Beyond all time that can be thought
thou haft been evermore.
4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rite
they roar and make a noise :
The floods(I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.
5 Yes, though the storms arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell :
The Lord is strong and more of might
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend :
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.
P S A L M xciv. J. H.
O Lord thou doft revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee :
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see,
2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth doft judge and guide :
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride,
3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting'up their voice ?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoice ?
4 How long shall they with brags burst
and proudly prate their fill ?
Shall they rejoice that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill ?
5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sore :
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.
6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :
They slay the children fatherless,
and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take those things in hand
this talk they have of thee :
Can Jacobs God this understand ?
Truth, no, he cannot see.
8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.
9 The Lord which made the ear of man
he needs of right must hear :
He made the eye, all things must then
before his sight appear.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct
and make them understand :
Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can you scape his hand ?
The second Part (ma 11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain:

the Lord (I say) man thoughts doth scan
and findeth them but vain.
But Lord that man is happy sure,
whom thou doft keep in awe :
and through correction doft procure
to teach him in thy Law.

3 Whereby he shall in quiet self
in time of trouble fit :
When wicked men shall be suppreſt,
and fall into the pit.

5 For ſure, the Lord will not refake
his people for to take :
His heritage whom he did chafe,
he will no time forfake.

5 Until that judgment be decreed
to justice to convert :
That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.

6 But who upon my part shall stand
againſt the cursed train ?
O who ſhall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

7 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :
My foul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

8 When I did ſay my foot did glide
I now am like to fall :
Thy goodness, Lord, did ſo provide
to stay me up withal.

19 When wiſh my ſelf I muſted much,
and could no comfort find :
Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did eafe my mind.

20 Wilt thou inhauing thy ſelf and draw with wicked men to fit ?
Which wiſh pretence instead of law,
much miſchief do commit.

21 For they conſult againſt the life
of righteous men and good :
And in their counſels they are riſe,
to ſhed the guiltleſs blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or lock :
He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cauſe their miſchief all themselves for to annoy :
And in their malice they ſhall fall,
our God ſhall them deſtroy.

P S A L M xcvi. J. H.

1 Come let us lift up our voice,
and ſing unto the Lord :
In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.

2 Yes let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praife :
In ſinging Psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad alway.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God :
A King above all gods, throughout
in all the world abroad

4 The ſecrem of the earth ſo deep
and cornes of the land :
The tops of hills that are ſo ſleepy,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The ſea and waters all are his,
for he the ſame hath wrought :
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let us bow and praife the Lord,
before him let us fall :
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why ? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his ſheep, and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart :
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in defert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove :
My wondrous works when they did fee
yet ſill they would me move.

10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve
and I to them did ſay,
They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherfore I ſware, when that my wrath
was kindled in my breſt,
That they ſhould never tread the path
to enter in my reſt.

P S A L M xcvi. J. H.

Sing ye with praife unto the Lord,
new ſongs with joy and mirth
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea ſing unto the Lord, I ſay,
praise ye his holy Name :
Decare and ſhew from day to day
ſalvation by the fame.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
To ſhew his wonders do not ſpare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why, the Lord is much of might
and worthy praife alway :
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I ſay.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols, that will fade :
But yet our God, he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praife and honour eke do dwelle
for aye before his face :
Both power and might likewiſe exell
within his holy place.

7 Aſcribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world :
All might and worship eke I ſay,
aſcribe unto the Lord,

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name :
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.
The second Part.
9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright :
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above :
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might :
To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.
12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoice :
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth :
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might :
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.
P S A L M xcvii. J. H.

The Lord doth reign, whereat the earth
may joy with pleasant voice :
And eke the Isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoice.
2 Both clouds and darknes eke do swell
and round about him bear :
Yea right and justice ever dwell,
and bide about his seat.
3 Yea fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face :
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
4 His lightnings eke full bright did bfare
and to the world appear :
Whereat the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord :
They fled before that Rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and shew
his justice forth abroad :
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vain :
And eke to those that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.
8 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall :
9 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall rejoice.

For at thy judgments they shall sing
and make a pleasant noise :
10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high
in all the earth abroad :
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that fear the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill :
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring up to the just
with pleasure for his part :
Great joy with gladness, mirth, and jollity
to them of upright heart.
13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
his holiness proclaim :
Be thou full eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

P S A L M xcviii. J. H.
O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song, (ver.)
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes devour :
And get himself the victory,
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make his people know
his saving health and might :
The Lord doth eke his justice shew,
in all the heathens fight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in mind he doth record :
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.
5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth :
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice,
to him with joy and mirth.
6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with Psalms :
Rejoice before the Lord our King
with Trumpets and with Shalsims.

7 Yea let the sea with all therein
for joy both roar and swell :
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoice their fles,
and clap their hands apace :
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.
9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight :
And rule the people mighty
with justice and with right.

P S A L M xcix. J. H.
The Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full sore :
Yea he on Cherubims doth sit,
though all the world doth roar.
2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell,
is high and wondrous great :
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he alsof. is set.

Let all men praise thy mighty Name:
for it is fearfull sure:
and let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
The princely power of our King
doth love judgment and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.
To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him doe:
before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them wel,
and gave them answer all.
Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them until.
O Lord our God thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them again:
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintaine.
O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world
is holy ever still.

P S A L M C. J.H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voices:
All him serve with fear, his praise forth tel,
come ye before him and rejoyce.
3 The Lord ye know is God indeed,
without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.
4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bles his Name alwaies,
for it is seemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.
2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:
Not we our selves, for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

3 O go into his gates alwaies,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts see forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.
4 For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

I Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God unto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way,
until thou come to me:
And in the midst of my house walk,
in presence of my spirit:
3 And I no kind of wicked thing,
will set before my sight.
I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the froward heart
none evil will I see.
5 Him will I stroy that flandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh hie.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them within
the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guilful person have within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

P S A L M cii. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:
2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.
4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead:
And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As Pelican in wilderness,
such cast now am I in.
7 And as an Owle in desert is,
so I am such an one:
I watch, and as a Sparrow on
the house top am alone.
8 Lo daily in reproachfull wife,
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.
9 Surely with ashes as with breads
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drak with tears
that from mine eyes have fill'd.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou haft lifed me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grass,
which soon away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for ever doft
remain in ready place:
And thy remembrance ever doth
abide from race to race.

The Second Part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
forefer is come to end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.
15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bends:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown shall spread.
19 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to dy.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same.
22 Then when the people of the land
and kingdoms with accord, hall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he hath cut my daies
thus I therefore did say:
My God in midif of all my daies
now take me not away:
y years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.
Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made

26 Yea they shall perish and decay;
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.
27 Thou as a garment shalt them change
and changed they shall be:
But thou doft still abide the same,
thy years do never flee.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

PSALM ciii. T. S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
few not thy self unkind:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'th.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be opprest:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.
7 His ways and his commandements
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kind and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great
twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the Sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second Part.

And look what pity parents dear
unto their children bear:
like pity beareth God to such as worship him in fear.
4 The Lord that made us knows our our mold and faliion just: (inshape,
how weak and frail our nature is,
and how we are but dust.
5 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay:
like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.
Whose gloss & beauty stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
and make that after their assaultis
such blossoms have no place.

But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
their children shall receive
his righteousness at hand.
I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
and nor forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.

The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stool of the Lord:
by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.
Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bless the Lord:
such to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.

Ye noble host and miniters,
cease not to laud him still:
such ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name:
heart, my mind, and eke my soul
praise ye also the same.

P S A L M civ. W. K.

Y soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name:
Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear!
praising in glory,
that great is thy fame!
nour and Majestie
in thee shine most clear.
With lighe as a robe
thou hast thee beclad:
ereby all the earth
thy greatness may see
the heaven in such sort thou alto hast spreid.
or it to a curtain
compared may be.
In chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure
such as his chariot
are made him to bear.

And there with much swiftness
his courie doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve,
we see also preft:
His will to accomplish,
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power!

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou haft:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And so give due place
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be:
That in their great raging,
they haft soon away,

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou doft but speak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewise the vallies
mote quickly descend,
Where thou them appointed remain they do till.

9 Their bounds thou haft set,
how far they shall run:
So that in their rage
not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second Part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wild asles
their thirst oft times flakes,
And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fills.

12 By these p'leasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the Air
abide thall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excel.

- 13 The mountauns to moist,
the clouds he doth use :
The earth with his Works
is wholly replete.
- 14 So as the brute cartell
he doth not refuse :
But grass doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.
- 15 Yea bread, wine, and oyle
he made for mans sake:
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
- 16 The Cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make :
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.
- 17 In these may birds build,
and make there their nests :
In firre-trees the Storks remain and abide.
- 18 The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest :
And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.
- 19 The Moon then is set
her season to run :
The daies from the nights
therby to discern :
And by the descending
also of the Sun,
The cold from heat alway
therby we do learn.
- 20 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power :
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.
- 21 The Lions range roaring,
their prey to devour :
But yet it is thou Lord
which giveft them food.
- 22 As soon as the Sun
is up, they retire :
To couch in their dens
then are they full fain :
- 23 That man to his work may
as right doth require :
Till night come and call him,
to take rest again.
- The third Part.
- 24 How sundry O Lord,
are all thy works found ?
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought :
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth found :
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thoughts.
- 25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad :
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
- 26 There both mighty snips fail,
and some lie at road :

Psalm Cv.

- The Whale huge and monstrosus
there also doth sport.
- 27 All things on thee wait,
thou doft them relieve :
And thou in due time
full well doft them feed.
- 28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give ;
They gather full gladly
those things which they need,
- Thou openeft thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.
- 29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
vile dast then they be.
- 30 Again when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue :
- Then are they cleared,
as thou haft decreed :
And doft by thy goodness
the drie earth renew.
- 31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last :
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice.
- 32 His looks can the earth make
to tremble full fast :
And likewise the mountains
to smoak at his voice.
- 33 To this Lord and God,
sing will I always :
So long as I live,
my God praise will I :
- 34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I cry.
- 35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire :
And eke the perverse,
them root out with flame :
- But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And lay with the faithful,
praise ye the Lords Name.
- PSALM cv. N.
- Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name :
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
- 2 Sing ye unto the Lord I say,
and sing unto his praise :
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought alwaies.
- 3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord :
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.

Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might :
and seek his face continually,
and preface of his right.

- 3 The wondrous works that he hath done
keep still in mindfull heart :
Ne let the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart.
4 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.
5 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most righfull judgments are through all the earth abroad.
6 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembred evermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second Part.

- 7 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago :
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.
8 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey :
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for aye.
9 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give :
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.
10 Although the number at that time
did very small appear :
Yea very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.
11 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode : (land)
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
12 And wrong at no oppreßors hand
he suffered them to take :
But even the great and mighty Kings
reproved for their sake.

- 13 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be :
Ne do the Prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.
14 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroid the store :
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before.

The third Part.

- 15 Even Joseph which had once been sold
to live a slave in wo :
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons peirc'd also.
16 Until the time came when his cause
was knowne apparently :
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did try.

- 19 The King sent and delivered him
from prison where he was :
20 The ruler of the people then
did freely let him passe.
21 And over all his house he made him Lord to bear the sway :
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.
22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land :
And wisdoms bore his ancient men
mighty cause to understand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also :
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.
24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow,
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turn'd that they with his people did entreat : (hate)
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Part.

- 26 His faithfull servant Moses then
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his mesage to disclose.
27 The wondrous mesage of his signs
among them he did show :
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.
28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark
instead of brighter day :
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into blood.
he did their fishes slay : (p. ac) 30 Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.
31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisom flies,
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain :
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.
33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow :
And all their trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then Caterpillars did
and Grasshoppers abound :
35 Which ate the grass in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth Part.

- 36 The first-begotten in their land
like deadly he did smite:
Yea the beginning and first fruit
of all their force and might:
37 With gold & silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass :

nd in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did the ne depart :
For terror and the fear of them
was fain upon their heart.

39 To shroud them from the parching heat
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused Quails
to rain at their request :
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he represt :
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out :
And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho :
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago. (mirth)

43 He brought his people forth with
and his elect with joy,
Out of the cruel land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands :
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands :
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore :
And faithfully obey his laws :
praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L M cvi. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye :
2 Who can express his noble acts,
or all his praise display ?
3 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway :
With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.

4 And with thy saving health(O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :
7 hat I the great felicity
of thine elect may see,
5 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull mind possesse :
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.

6 Both we, and eke our fathers all,
have sinned every one :
We have committed wickedness,
and lewdly we have done.

The wonders great which thou(O Lord)
haft done in Egypt land :
our fathers though they saw them all
yet did not understand.

for yet thy mercies multitudine
did keep in thankful mind :
at the sea, yea the red sea.
Rebuked most unkind.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name :
That he might make his power known
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd :
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.
10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despisfull foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd
not one was left alive :
12 Then they believ'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give.
13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgoe :
And for his counsel and his will
they did negligt to wait.

14 But lustred in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust :
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton mindes desire
he suffered them to have :
But wasting leanness therewithall unto their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodg'd in their tents,
as Moses, they did grutch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour :
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hot consuming fire :
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame :
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likeness of a Calf,
which feedereth on the grassie,
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour
unkindly they forgot :
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done :
And by the red sea dreadfull things
performed long agone.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkind :
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind ;

had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
to turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him break.
They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give:
Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.

But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:

Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning mind.
Therefore against them lifted he
his strong revenging hand:
them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.
And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
and through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.

To Baal-Peor then they did adjoin themselves also:
and ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.

Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
and in his sore inkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
But Phineas stood up with zeal,
the sinners vile to slay:
and judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth Part.

It was impured unto him
for righteousness that day:
and from thenceforth so counted is
from race to race, I say.
At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
a, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.
Because they vex'd his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
their lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.
Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho.
But were among the heathen mix'd
and learn'd their works also.
And did their idols serve, which were
their ruine and decay:
To fiends their sons and daughters they
did offer up and slay:
Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt:
a their own sons and daughters blood,
without all cause of guilt.
om they to Canaan idols thou
offred with wicked hand:
d so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.
Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:

And with their own in vention
a whoring they did stray.
40 Therefore against his people was the Lord's wrath kindled sore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen man
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (they

The fifth Part.

42 Yea and their hateful enemies
opprest them in the land:
And they were humbly made to flood
as subject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thral had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse
were brought full low to lie:
44 Yet when he saw them in distresse
he hearkned to their cry.
45 He call'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made so find before the fight of those That led them captive from their land
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
Save us (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:
That we may glory in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L M. cvi. W. K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortal men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shall praise his Name:
And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandered in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way.
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:
That

That faintnes did them sore assault,
and eke their souls annoi'd.
6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
7 And by that way which was most right,
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a City go,
and there also abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
9 For he the empty soul sustain'd whom thirst had made to faint :
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to taste such troublous storms
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

11 For they against the Lord's own words
they fought for to rebel :
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief :
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
14 For he from darknes our them brought
and from deaths dreadful shade :
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade :
15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass
and brake them with strog hand :
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.
17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel
and cannot from them wend :
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
18 Their souls so much did loath al meat that none they could abide :
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.
19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
20 For then he sent to them his words
which health did soon restore :
And brought them from those dangers wherein they were before. (deep)

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks and also fear :
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.
23 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend :
Their merchandise through fearful flood
to compass and to end.
24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lord's works what they be :
And in the dangerous deep the same,
most marvellous they see.
25 For at his word the stormy wind
aristeth in a rage :
And stirreth up the surges so,
that nought can them affrage.
26 Then are they lifted up so high
the clouds they seem to gain :
And plunging down the depth until their souls consume with pain.
27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reel :
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feel.
28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they praid.
29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdy storms to cease :
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men glad when rest is come
which they so much did crave :
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
32 Let them in presence of the folk with praise extoll his Name :
And where the Elders do convene,
there let them do the same.
33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn :
And drierth up as it were dust
the springing well and boorn.
34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt
full barren he doth make,
When on their sins that dwelt therein
he doth just vengeance take.
35 Again, the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear :
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.

Wherein such hungry souls are set,
as he doth freely chase :
But they a City might them build,
to dwell in for their use.

That they may sow their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant,
yield them fruit of such increase,
as none may seem to want.
They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so :
so doth also the bruit beasts make
by numbers great to grow.

But when I faithfull are low brought
by the oppression stroue :
I minish do through many plagues
that compass them about.
Then doth he Princes bring to shame
which did them sore oppreſſe :
I likewise caused them to erre
within the wilderness.

But yet the poor he raiseth up
out of their troubles deep :
I oft times doth his train augment
much like a flock of sheep.
The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoice :
whereas the wicked and perverse
With grief shall stop their voice.
But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record ?
I certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

P S A L M c v i i i . J. H.

God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so :
will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also :
Awake my violl and my harp,
sweet melody to make :
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.

By me among the people, Lord,
will praised shalt thou be :
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
Because thy mercy, Lord, is great,
above the heavens hie :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.

Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self, O God :
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty :
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.

God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound :
them I will divide, and meie
the vale of Succoth ground.
And Gillead shall be mine own,
Manasse's mine shall be :

My head-strength Ephraim, and law
shall Juda give for me.

9 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw :
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me ?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be ?

11 Is it not thou O Lord which late hadst us forsaken quite ?
And thou O Lord which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight.
12 Give us O Lord thy saving aid.
when troubles do assaile :
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

13 Through God we shall do valiant and
and worthy of renown :
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down,

P S A L M c ix . N.

I N speechless silence do not b. Id
O God thy tongue always :
O God even thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.

2 The wicked and the guiltfull mouth
on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

3 They did beset me round about
with words of hateful fight :
Without all cause of my deserts
against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they are my foes,
but then gan I to pray :
5 My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hateful foe to stand.

7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein :
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take :

9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
so beg and seek their bread :
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioneers
catch all his goods and store :
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toyl before.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all :

That

That on his children fatherless
Will let their mercy fail.

The second Part.

- 13 And so let his posterity
For ever be detested :
Their name out-blotted in the age
That after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness
From Gods remembrances fall :
And let not thou his mothers sin
Be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
Let them remain for aye :
That from the earth their memory
He may cut clean away.
16 Sigh mercy he forgot to shew,
But did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to stay
The wofull-hearted wight.

- 17 As he did cursing love, it shall Beside unto him so :
And as he did not blessing love,
It shall be far him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
So it like water shall
Into his bowels, and like oyl
Into his bones besoil.
19 As garment let it be to him
To cover him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he
May girded be alway.
20 Lo let the same be from the Lord
The guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that evil speak Against my soul also.

- 21 But thou O Lord, which art my God,
Deal thou (I say) with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
For great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained breft
My heart is wounded sore.

The third Part.

- 23 Even so do I depart away,
As doth declining shade :
And as the Grashopper, so I Am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needfull food
Enfeebled are my knees :
And all her satnes hath my flesh
Enforced been to leese.
25 And I also a vile reproach
To them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look,
Did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
Mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy Lord,
Save and deliver me.
27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand :

And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord
So shall they understand.

- 28 Although they curse w spite, yet thou Shalt bless with loving voice :
They shall arise and come to shame.
thy servant shall rejoice,
29 Let them be clothed all with shame
That enemies are to me :
And with confusion as a cloke
Eke covered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth
Give thanks unto the Lord :
And I among the multitude
His praises will record.

- 31 For he with help at his right hand
Will stand the poor man by :
To save him from the man that would Condemn his soul to die.

P S A L M c x . N .
THe Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sic thou at my right hand :
Till I have made thy foes a stool
Whereon thy feet shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
The scepter of thy might :
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
The ruler in their fight.
3 And in the day on which thy might
And power they shall see :
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
The people offer thee,
Yea with an holy worshipping
Then shall they offer all :
Thy births-dew is the dew that doth
From womb of morning fall.

- 4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will Repent what he doth say :
By th' order of Melchisedech,
Thou art a Priest for aye.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand
That standeth for thy stay,
Shall wound for thee the stately Kings
Upon his wrathfull day.
6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
The place with bodies dead :
And over divers countries shall
In funder smite the head.
7 And he shall drink out of the brook
That runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
His roiall head that day.

P S A L M c xi . N .
With heart I do accord,

- WTo praise and laud the Lord
In presence of the just.
2 For great his works are found.
To search them such are bound.
As him do love and craft.
3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.
4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember shoud :
His mercy faileth never,

Such as to him love bear,
portion full fair
He hath up for them laid,
for this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
For he did not disdain
his works so shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders :
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders,
Of all his works ensueth
both judgment, right and croth, Whereto his statutes tend :
They are decreed sure
for ever to endure
Which equity doth end :
Redemption he gave
His people for so faire :
9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But always to prevail,
His holy Name be feared.
To Who so with heart full fain
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey :
Such as his laws do keep
shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for aye.

THe man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:
His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blesse such as from him proceed,
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still,
Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light :
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his sight :
5 Yea pity moveth such to lend
He doth by judgment things expend.
6 And surely such shall never fail :
For in remembrance had is he :
7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.
9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteousness shall still remain
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain,
10 Yea gnash his teeth thereat shall he
And so consume his state to see,

YE children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord:
2 Yea blessed be always his Name.
3 Who from the rising of the Sun,
Till it return where it begun,
Is to be praised with great fame,
4 The Lord all people doth surmount,
As for his glory we may count.
Above the heavens high to be.

5 With God the Lord who may compare Whose dwellings in the heavens are ?
Of such great power and force is he,
6 He doth abase himself we know,
Things to behold both here below,
and also in heaven above.
7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His only mercy did him move.
8 And so him set in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity.
That rule his people with great fame,
9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear.
Therefore praiſe ye his holy Name.

NOT unto us, Lord, nor to us,
but to thy Name give praiſe :
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee always.
2 Why ſhall the heathen ſcorers ſay
where is their God become ?
3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.
4 Their idols ſilver are, and gold,
works of mens hands they be :
5 They have a mouth, and do not ſpeak,
and eyes, and do not ſee.
6 And they have ears joyned to their head,
and do not hear at all :
And noſes eke they formed have,
and do not ſmell withal.

- 7 And hands they have, and handle not,
and feet, and do not go :
A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.
8 Those that make them are like to them
and those whose trust they be :
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he :
11 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
12 The Lord hath mindful been of us,
and will us bless also :
On Israel and on Aarons house,
his blessings he will shew.
13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bless them all :
Eyes he will bless them every one,
the great and eke the small.
14 To you (I say) the living Lord
will multiply his grace :
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say :
Which both the heaven and the earth,
hath made and set in stay.
16 The heavens, yea the heavens high,
belong unto the Lord :
The earth unto the sons of men,
he gave of free accord :
17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown :
Nor any that into the place,
of silence do go down.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye :
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

I Love the Lord, because my voice,
and prayer heard hath he :
2 When in my days I cal'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.
3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about beset me round :
When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.
4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord.
I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very merciful,
and just he is also :
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.
6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be :
I was in wofull misery,
and he delivered me.
7 And now my soul, fith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest :

- For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath express'd.
8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall :
My moiftned eyes from mournfull tear,
my sliding feet from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walk theyfore :
10 I did believe, therefore I spake ;
for I was troubled sore.

The second Part.

11 I said in my distress and fear
that all men lyars be :
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me ?
13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take :
And on the Lords Name I will call,
when I my prayers make.
14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him be bright :
Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples fight.
15 Right dear and precious in his sight,
the Lord doth aye esteem
The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.
16 Thy servant Lord, thy servant I,
I do my self confess,
Son of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.
17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise :
And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.
18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him beight :
Yea even at this present time,
in all his peoples fight.
19 Yea in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,
O thou Jerusalem, I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

P S A L M cxvii. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwaies :
And all ye people every where
set forth his noble praise.

his truth endures for aye :
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

P S A L M cxviii. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he :
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.
2 Let Israel confess and say,
his mercy dures for aye :
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.
4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confess and say :

The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.
In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cri'd:
which loyngly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
or fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
wherefore I shall see my desire
upon mine enemy.

Better it is to trust in God,
than in mans mortal seed:
Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.
All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
it in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say:
it in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.
They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords Name
quenchd their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:
it through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquisht all.
The Lord is my defence and strength
my joy, my mirth, my song:
he is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.

3 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:
he causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.
4 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to pass:
his hand hath the preheminence,
his force is as it was.

5 I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare
the Lord his might & wondrous power,
his works and what they are.

6 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
but hath not given me over ye
to death, as ye may see.

7 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
that I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to express.

8 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut:
for good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me;
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble act.

24 This is the joyful day indeed
which God himself hath wrought
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with one accord:

26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confess and render thanks to thee.

Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

Blessed are they that perfect ave,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never start.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their hearts,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtless such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which steadily walk in his way
without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts,
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways so to address:
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confess.

6 So should no shame my life attaint,
whilst I thus set mine eyes:
And bend my minde always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart
and magnifie thy Name;
When I shall learn thy judgments just,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And

- 8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy lawes most right.
Forsake me not for ever Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.
- B E T H. The second Part.
- 9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
- 10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
- 11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
- 12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.
- 13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night,
The judgments all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
- 14 Thy testimonies and thy waies,
please me no less indeed,
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.
- 15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and therero frame my talk:
As at a mark so will I aim,
thy waies how I may walk.
- 16 My only joy shall be so fix'd,
and on thy lawes so set:
That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forger.
- G I M E L. The third Part.
- 17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy Word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.
- 18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up
so open and make bright,
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.
- 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here, now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my foote-stepp's for to clear.
- 20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.
- 21 The proud men, and malicious,
thou haft destroy'd each one:
And cursed are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.
- 22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire,

- 23 The Prince great in counsel late,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
- 24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve instead of counsellors,
my masters for to pass.
- D A L E T H. The fourth Part.
- 25 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
- 26 My waies when I acknowledg'd
with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now eft-soon, and me infract
thy lawes to love and fear.
- 27 Teach me once throughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
- 28 My soul I feel so sore opprest,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore,
haste Lord to send relief.
- 29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.
- 30 The way of truth both straight & sun
I have chosen and found:
I set thy judgments me before,
which keep me safe and sound.
- 31 Since then(O Lord) I for'd my self
thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.
- 32 Then will I run with joyful cheer
where thy word doth me call,
When thou haft set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.
- H E The fifth Part.
- 33 Infract me Lord in the right trade
of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.
- 34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With heart, and mind, and all my
I will it keep I say. (might,
- 35 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me Lord I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
- 36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord shield me with thy grace.
- 37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power,
to walk thy ways aright.
- 38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord which

which thou hast made to me,
which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.

Reproach and shame which I so fear
from me O Lord expell :
thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
Behold my heart desire is bese
thy lawes to keep for aye :
and strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

A U The first Part.

Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain O Lord :
by saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.
So shall I stop the scandalous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
or in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trust.

The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be preft :
or in thy judgments wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
And whilst tharbreath wishin my breft
doth natural life preserve :
till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

So walk will I, as set at large,
and made free from all dread :
cause I sought how far to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
Thy noble acts I will describe
as things of most great fame :
even before Kings I will them blaz,

and shrink no whit for shame.

I will rejoice them to obey
thy worthy hefts and will :
which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still :
My hands I will lift to thy lawes,
which I have dearly sought :
and practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

A I N. The seventh Part.

Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember.
or therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.
It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me afflai :
for were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

The proud and such as God contemn,
still made of me a scorn :
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn :
But cal'd to mind, Lord, thy great work
shew'd to our fachers old :
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
But yet alas for fear I quake,

seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments upon them.

54 And as for me, I fram'd my song,
thy statutes to exalt :
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night, when others sleep :
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay :
I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep alway,

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face :

As thou therefore hast promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet strait to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :
But hastily thy lawes to keep,
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgments towards me
so great are and so hie :
That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart :
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously
do all the world fulfill :
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so haft thou with me dealt :
For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge alwaies aright,
and give me knowledge sure :
For certainly believe I do that thy precepes are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray :
But now I keep thy holy Word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and

and giv'it most liberally Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud & wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.
70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly as grease so are they fat. (wealth)
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold:
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy lawes in ore.
74 So they that fear thee shall rejoice,
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy Word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is just: (plagu'd
So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
So thou to me haft promised,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give. (tenet 78 Confound the proud whose false pre-
is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy herbs so know
I will my self employ.

79 Whoso with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be thent.

C A P H. The eleventh Part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not,
thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust,
my heart desire to have.
82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I fly:
O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?
83 As a skin bottle in the smoke

so am I parcht and dri'd,
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slides 84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
before I see the hour,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits
thinking to make me sure.
Thus contrary against thy law
my hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commandments are all true
and causeless they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me relieve.
87 Almost they had me clean defroyed,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou dost dw
thy word is stablisch sure:
And shall for all eternity
fast graven there endure.
90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness:
Whose ground-work thou haft laid so
no tongue can exprefse.
91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere
According to thine Ordinance,
for all things thee do fear.
92 Had it not been that in thy law
my foul had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distreile
I had been brought to nought.
93 Therefore I will thy preceptes aye
in memory keep fast:
By them thou haft my life refor'd
when I was at last cast.
94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws,
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,
But I the while confidered
thy noble works and great.
96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath no end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.

M E M. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love,
do I bear to thy law?
All the day long I meditate
on it with reverent awe.
98 Thy word hath taught me far so

my foes in policie :
I still I hold it as a thing
of most excellencie.

My teachers which did me instruc<sup>t</sup>,
in knowledge I excel :
cause I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.
In wisdom I do pass also the ancient men indeed :
and all because to keep thy laws,
I held it aye best need.
My feare I have restrained eke
from every evil way :
cause that I continually thy word might keep, I say. (mens,
I have not swerv'd from thy judge-
nor yet shrunk any dell :
why? thou haft me taught thereby,
to live godly and well.

O Lord how sweet unto my taste
and I thy words alway !
abreast no hony in my mouth
feel ought so sweet I may.
Thy laws have me such wisdom that utterly I hate (learn'd wicked and ungodly wayes,
in every kind or rate.

N. The fourteenth part.
Even as a lane to my feet,
so doth thy Word shine bright:
to my paths where ever I go,
it is a flaming light.
I have both sworn and will perform
my promises doubtless,
I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life express.

Affliction hath me sore opprest,
and brought me to deaths door :
Lord, as thou haft promised,
to me to life restore.
The offrings which with heart and not frankly I thee give, (voice opt, and teach me how I may ster thy judgements live.

My soul is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me affail :
do I not thy law forger,
or it to keep will fail.
Although the wicked laid their nets,
to catch me at a bay :
did I not from thy preceptes
once swerve or go astray.

Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
a mine own heritage :
why? for therein I delighr,
and set my whole courage.
For evermore I have been bent
my statutes to fulfil :
so likewise unto the end
will continue still.

M & c N. The fifteenth part.
The crafty thoughts & doublehearts

I do alwaies detest :
But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place
my shield of strong defence :
Therefore have I thy promises
look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men ;
depart from me anon :
For the Commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou haft promis'd, so perform
that death me not assail :
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I qual.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
for eught they do or say :
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou haft trod such under thy fees,
as do thy statutes break :
For nought availeth their subtily,
their counsel is but weak.

119 Like dross thou cast'st the wicked on where ere they go or dwel :
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh alas is taken with fear,
as though it were benumb'd :
For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one aston'd.

A N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
and give to all men right :
Resign me not to them that would oppres me with their might.
122 But for thy servanc Surety be,
in that thing that is good :
That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine ey's with waiting are now blyng
thy health so much I crave :
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
wherby thou wilt me save.

124 Intreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show :
Thy statutes of most excellency,
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servanc (Lord) I am
grant me to understand, How by thy statutes I may know
best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
for truth is quite decaid :
Thy law likewise they have transgressed
and none against them stand.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better than gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy preceptis all most just
and to them laid in store :
All crafty and malicious wiles
I do abhor therefore,

P E. The seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderful and full of things profound :

My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word,
they find a light most clear :
And very idiots understand,
when they it read or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd
to know thy commandment :
This I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above :
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my foot-steps by thy Word,
that I thy will may know :
And never let inquiry
thy servant overthrow. (harm's)

134 From slanderous tongues & deadly preferre and keep me sure :
Thy precepts then wil I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth sur-
the Sun in his bright hue, (mount, Let thine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush
of dreary tears that fall : (out
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

F Z A D I. The eighteenth Part.

137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
and when thou dost sentence pronounce thou art a righteous judge.

138 To render right and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high :
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away :
To see my foes thy word forger,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem :
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most for ever to endure : (just,
Also thy Law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.

144 The righteousness of thy judgement
doth last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P H. The nineteenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd & cri'd
now answer me, O Lord :
That thy commandments to oblige,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn,
before the day wax light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole pight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake :
That by devising on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice and pitie on me take :
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
left life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and do proceed
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone but
and straid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thine for need doth so require. (m 1
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments have I learned
not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou haft them grounded so.

R E S H. The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause
with speed some succour send :
From death(as thou haft promised)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant
what tongue can them arraist !
And as thou haft me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never strunk,
nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is, for grief I die,
when I these traitors see :
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I doth o'er thy laws,

with heart most glad and fain :
Thou art good and gracious Lord,
Restore my life again.
What thy word doth decree, must be
and so it hath been ever :
My righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

H I N. The xxi. part.

Princes have sought by cruelty,
causelst so make me crouch :
All in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and dereft :
Or why thy holy law do I
above all things love best.
Seven times a day I praise the Lord
singing with heart and voice :
By righteous acts and wonderfuls
so cause me to rejoice.

Great peace & rest shall all such have,
as do thy statutes love.
No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.
My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

The laws have been mine exercise
which my soul most desir'd :
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd :
Thy statutes and commandments,
I kept (thou know'it) aright :
For all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

T A X. The xxii. part.

O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :
And as thou haft me promise made,
So teach me thee to fear.
Mine humble supplication,
tow'r'd thee let find access :
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

Then shal my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort :
When thou thy statutes haft me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
My tongue shall sing and preach thy
and on this wise say shall : (word, Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.

Search out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save :
For thy commandments to observe chosen O Lord I have.
Of thee alone Lord I craye health,
for other I know none.

And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
Grant me therefore long daisies to thy name to magnifie : (live
And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.

For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandering sheep.
O seek me, for I have not fail'd
thy commandments to keep.

Get'ft thou thus for to sting,
Thou false and flattering lyar.
4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No less then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedar's are by name
By whom the Rock elect,
And all of Isaacs feet
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life.

Causelst I was controll'd
By them that would have strife,

some grace for to archieve :
■ So we behold the Lord our God,
still he do us forgive.
■ Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercie in thy sight :
■ For we are fill'd and overcome
with harred and despight.
■ Our minds be stufft with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly-wise
Do make of us their mocking rocks,
the Proud do us despise.

If that the Lord

Made their uprores,

■ Now long ago
they had devour'd us all :
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem ;
Such was their rage,

So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall ;
■ The raging streams
most proud and roaring noisit,

■ But lovd' be God,
which doth us safelie keep
From bloudie teeth,

us from these wicked men.

When that the Lord
Again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great
And also servitude extreme ;
Work was such
As did surmount mans heart and That we were (thought,
much like to them that use to dream,
With mouths they were
With laugheer filled them.
Their tongue did cleke our tongues
Did shew us joyful men.

The heathen folk
Were forced then this to confess :
Now that the Lord
For them also great things had done,
But much more we,
And therefore can confess no less :
Before to joy
We have good cause as we began,
O Lord go forth,
Thou canst our bondage end :
To defarn
The flowing rivers send.

Fall true it is,
That they which sow in tears indeed :
Oft they shall me from my youth

A time will come,
When they shal reap in mirth and Joy :
6 They went and wept
In bearing of their precious seed :
For that their foes
Ful oftentimes did them annoy :
But their return
With joy they shall sure see : :
Their sheaves home bring,
And nor impaired be.

Except the Lord the house doth make,
And shereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake,
Cities and holds to watch and wards,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise earlie in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding ful hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and wort,
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark wel when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land
It is the gift of Gods own hand.
For God himself doth multiply,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and attwencie,
In person and in comeliness :
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 O wel is he that hath his quive
Furnish'd with such artillerie :
For when in peril he shal be,
Such one shal never shake nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

How happy a thing it is,
and joyful for to see
brethren together fast to hold the band of unity !
It calls to mind that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
which on the Sacrificer's head

It were not Aarons head alone
but drenche his beard throughout :
and finally it did run down
his rich attire abour.
And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill :

and Sion with his silver drops

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise
praise him with one accord: him,
O praise him still all ye that be

Praise ye the Lord for he is good,

It is a comely and good thing,
alwaies to do the same.
For why ? the Lord hath chose Jacob,
his very own ye see ;
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.
For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great :
He is indeed above all gods,
most easie to intreat.
For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well he wrought
In heaven, in earth, and in the sea.

which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds ev'n from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain :
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He smote the first-born of each thing
in Egypt that took rest :
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great
O Egypt void of vaunts :
On Pharaoh thy cursed King,
and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things :
He slew the great, and mighty,
and chiefeſt of their Kings.

11 Sehon King of the Amorites
and Og King of Bashan :
He slew also the Kingdoms all that were of Canaan.

12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endur' :
and thy memorial,
Throughout all generations
that are or ever shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed :
And to his servants he will shew
favour in time of need.

15 The idols of th' heath'n are made in all the coasts and lands,
Of silver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouths and cannot and eyes that have no sight : (speak)

17 They have eke ears and hear nothin', their mouths be breathless quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them
that so do set them forth :
And likewise those that trust in them
or think they ought be worth.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord :
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levi's house,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.

21 And out of Sion sound his praise :
the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.

V Hen as we fare in Babylon,
the rivers round about :
in remembrance of Sion,
the tears for grief burst out;
We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow trees upon :
in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

Then they to whom we prisoners were
said to us rauntingly :
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and pleasant melody.
Alas, said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
the praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King ?
But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide :
then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
And let my tongue within my mouth,
be ti'd for ever fast :
that I joy before I see
thy full deliverance past.

Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the cursed noise and crie
of Edoms sons against us made,
when they raz'd our citie.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
they cri'd, On, sack and raze their walls,
in despight of the Lord.

Even so shalst thou O Babylon,
at length so dust be brought :
And happy shal that man be cal'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
Yea blessed shal that man be cal'd,
that takes thy children young :
to dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streeets among.

I Hee wil I praise with my whole

in the presence of the gods
I wil advance thy praise.
Toward thy holie Temple, I

and praised in my thankful mouth
thy holie Name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withal :
For thou thy Name haft by thy Word
advanced over all.
8 When I did cal, thou heardeft me,
and thou haft made also
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

9 Yea all the Kings on earth, they shall give praise to thee O Lord :
For they of thy most holie mouth
have heard the mighty word.
3 They of the waies of God the Lord
in singing shal intreat :
Because the glorie of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowlie sprite :
But he (contemning) knows a fax
the proud and lofty wight.

Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and faved shall I be
By thy right hand : the Lord God will perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indires for eye,
Lord do me not forsake :
Forsake me not that am the work

thou understand'ft also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compasseft alwaies :
And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee :
5 Thou me behind hold'ft and before,
thou laif'ft thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy cumming skill :
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain until.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Sprite,
Lord, whither shal I go ?
Or whither shal I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there :
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou doft appear.
9 Yea let me take the morning wing,
and let me go and hide
Even there where are the faint-fit parts,
where flowing sea doth shide.
10 Yea even thither also shall thy teaching hand me guide.

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yes, if I say, the darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight :
Lo ev'n also the darkest night
about me shall be light.

12 Yea darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day :
To thee the darkness and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessedst haft my reins,
and thou haft covered me,
When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully,
and wondrously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formless, then thine eye
saw me, for in thy book
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
how dear are they to me ?
And of them all how passing great
the endless number be !

18 If I should count them, lo their sum
more than the sand I see :
And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldest slay :
Even those, O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I say.

20 Even those of thee (O Lord my God)
that speak full wickedly :
Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise ?
Contend I not against them all,
against thee that arise ?

22 I hate them with unsainted hate,
even as my utter foes :

23 Try me, (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose,

24 Consider Lord if wickedness
in me there any be :
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

PSALM CxI. N.

25 Ond save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight
And from all those which evil do imagine in their sprite.
26 Which make on me continual war,
their tosets so they have when-

3 Like Serpents, underneath their lips
is Ad ders poysen set.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked ha preserve me to abide Free from the cruel man that means
to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me
and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way, and gr
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :
Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.

7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the Strength that saveth me :
My head in day of battle hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked ha
the end of his desire :
Perform not his ill thoughts, left he
with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compass me about the chiefest of them all,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall:

10 Let coals fall on them, let him
them in consuming flame :
And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight :
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord th'afflicted wi
revenge, and judge the poor :

13 The just shall praise thy name, justi dwell with thee evermore.

PSALM CxI. N.

14 Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haft thou unto me :
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense let my prayess be directed in thine eyes :
And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice,

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mou
set thou a watch before :
And also of my moving hys,
O Lord keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works com
incline thou not my heart :
With ill men of their delicates,
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me L
for that is good for me ;
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oy I shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my he
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery
sake prayson for them all.

Psalm Cxlii. Cxliii.

xi

Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast :
then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.
Our bones about the graves mouth,
so scattered are they found :
he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.
But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee :
thee is all my trust, let not
my soul forsaken be.
Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the snare :
and from the subtle gins of them
that wicked workers are.
The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall :
while I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

P S A L M Cxlii. N.

Before the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry :
and with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
My meditation in his sight
to powre I did not spare:
and in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee :
way where I did walk, a snare
they slyly laid for me.
I will look'd & view'd on my right hands
but none there would me know:
my refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.

Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou only art :
you in the land of living art
my portion and my part.
Heark to my cry, for I am brought full low : deliver me
from them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

That I may praise thy Name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out :
then thou art good to me, the just shall pres' me round about.

P S A L M Cxliii. N.

Lord hear my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee :
ord, in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.
In judgement with thy servant Lord,
O enter not at all :
or justif'd be in thy fight,
not one that liveth shall.

The enemy hath purlo'd my soul,
my life to ground, hath thrown :
and laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long agone.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred sorrie :
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate :
Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have create.
6 To thee, O Lord, my God, to I
do stretch my crav'g hands :
My soul defireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fall
hide not thy face me fro :
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know,
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou
thou art my God, I say :
Let thy good Spirit into the land
of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickening alive do thou me make : (grace)
And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all
That do oppress my soul : for I thy servant am and shall.

P S A L M Cxliiv. N.

B Left be § Lord, my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight :
The Lord that doth my fingers frame,
to baffle by his might.
3 He is my goodness, fort and tower,
deliverer and shield :
In him I trust, my people he
subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in prie :
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise ?
4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his dayes to end,
As fleeting shad'e, bow down O Lord
the heavens and descend.

(smoke)
6 The mountains touch, and they shall cast forth thy lightning flame,
And scatter them : thine arrows shoot,
consume them with the flame.
7 Send down thine hand even from above
O Lord deliver me :
Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtle mouth of vanity,

- and fond neſt doth intreat :
 And their right hand is a right hand
   of faſhion and deceit.
 9 A new ſong will I sing, O God,
   and finging will I be On Viol, and on Inſtrument
   ten-stringed unto thee.
 10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings :
 Unto his ſervant David help
   from hurtful ſword he brings.
 11 From Strangers hand me ſave & shield,
   whofe mouth talks vanitie :
 And their right hand is a right hand
   of guile and subtilitie.
 12 That our ſons may be as the plants,
   whom growing youth doth rear :
 Our daughters as carv'd corner ſtones,
   like to a palace fair.
 13 Our garners full, and plentie may with fundrie ſorts be found.
 Our sheep bring thousands, in our ſtreets
   ten thouſands may abound.
 14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
   that none do us invade :
 There be no goings out, nor cries
   within our ſtreets be made.
 15 The people bleſfed are that with
   ſuch bleſſings are foſt'd :
 Yea, bleſſed all the people are,
   whofe God is God the Lord.

P S A L M Cxlv. N.

- THee wil I laud my God, and King, and bleſſ thy Name for aye :
 1 For ever wil I praise thy Name,
   and bleſſ thee day by day.
 2 Great is the Lord, moft worthie praife,
   his greatness none can reach :
 3 From race to race they ſhal thy works
   praife, and thy power preach.
 4 I of thy glorious Majetie
   the beaute wil record :
 And meditate upon thy works
   moft wonderful O Lord.
 5 And they ſhal of thy power and of thy fearful acts declare :
 And I to publish all abroad,
   thy greatness will not ſpare.
 6 And they into the mention ſhal break of thy goodness great :
 And I aloud thy righteousneſſ
   in finging ſhal repeat.
 7 The Lord our God is gracious,
   and merciful alſo :
 Of greaþ abounding mercies, and
   to anger he is slow.
 8 Yea good to all, and all his works
   his mercie doth exceed :
 Also all thy works do praife thee, Lord,
   and do thy honour ſpread.
 9 Thy Saints do bleſſ thee, and they do thy kingdom's glorie show :
 10 And blaſe thy power, to cauſt the ſouls
   giuen thee power to know,

The ſecond part;

- 13 And of his mighty kingdom ſhall
   to ſpread the glorious praife :
 Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is that doth endure alwaies :
 And thy dominion through each age
   endures without decay :
 14 The Lord upholedeth them that in their ſliding he doth stay.
 15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
   thou doſt them all relieve :
 And thou to each ſufficing food
   in ſeafon due doſt give.
 16 Thou openeft thy plenteous han
   and bounteouſly doſt fill
 All things whatſoever do live,
   with giftes of thy good will.
 17 The Lord is just in all his works,
   his works are holie all :
 18 Near all he is that call on him,
   in truſh that on him call.
 19 He the deſires which they requir
   that fear him will fulfiſ :
 And he will hear them when they call
   and ſave them all he will.
 20 The Lord preserves all thoſe to that bear a loving heart :
 But he thgn all that wicked are,
   will utterly ſubvert.
 21 My thankful mouth ſhal gladlie
   the praifes of the Lord :
 All fleiſh to praife his holy Name,
   for ever shall accord.

P S A L M Cxlvii. J.H.

 1 While breath & life pradong my ſoul
   my tongue no time ſhall ceafe.
 2 Truſt not in worldlie Princes the though they alound in wealth :
 Nor in the ſons of mortal men,
   in whom there is no health.
 4 For why? their breath doth ſoon die
   to earth axon they fall :
 And then the counſels of their hearts
   decay and perith all.
 5 O happy is that man I ſay,
   whom Jacobs God doth aid :
 And he whose hope doth not decay,
   but on the Lord is ſtaid.
 6 Which made the earth and waters
   the heavens high withal :
 Which doth his word, and promife
   in truſh and ever ſhal.
 7 With right alwaies doth he proceſſe
   for ſuch as ſuffer wrong :
 The poor and hungry he doth feed,
   and looſe the fetter ſtrong.
 8 The Lord doth ſend the blind
   the lame to limbs before :
 The Lord (I ſay) doth love, the rich
   and iuit men euermore,

He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger had in heart :
And quit the widow from distress,
and ill mens waies subvert.

Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall reign :
time of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

P S A L M Cxlviiij. N.

DRAISE ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing :
for it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.

The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone :
and the disperst of Israel
doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their hearts,
their sores up doth he bind :
4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind :
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite :
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoice :
And so our God upon the Harp,
advance your singing voice.
8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :
And on the mountains he doth make
the grass to grow again.

9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry :
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all thole that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :
And such as do attend upon his mercies thinning light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem,
thy God O Sion praise :
13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he staires.
14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the flour
of weare he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out :
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread :
17 Like mortals casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide ?
18 He sendeth forth his mighty words,
and melteth them again :
His winds he makes to blow, and then
the waves flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show :
His statures and his judgements he gives Israel to know.

20 With every Nation hath he nos
so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

P S A L M Cxlviiiij. J. H.

GIVE laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high :
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starrie skie.

2 And also ye,

His Angels all,
Armies royal,

Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moon and Sun
Which are so clear and bright ;
The same of you're done,
Menglitt'ning stars of light ;

4 And eke no less

Ye Heavens fair,

5 And clouds of the air,
His laud express.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see :
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,

Which he set fast,
To them he made
A law and grade,
For aye so last.

7 Extol and praise Gods Name !
On earth ye Dragons fell :
All deep do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all
And trees that fruitful are :
The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and camel,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and less
With all their pompous train :
Princes and all Judges
That in the world remain,

Exalt his Name.

12 Young men and maides,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prays
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with his

The horn of his
And help them all.
13 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness :
The children of Israel,
Each one born more and less.
16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

PSALM Calix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
A new rejoicing song :
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy Saints among.
1 Let Israel rejoice in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyful in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of wero his holy Name : (shure,
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.
4 For why ? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set ;
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour now
let all his Saints rejoice :
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouths let be the alta-

of God the mighty Lord :
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double edged sword.
7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands :
8 To bind their starely Kings, in chis
their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before :
This honour all his Saints shall have ;
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his Sanctuary :
And praise him in the firmament
that shews his power on hie.
2 Advance his Name, and praise him
his mighty acts always :
According to his excellency
of greatness give him praise.
3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding Trumpets blow :
Praise him upon the Viol, and upon the Harp also 4 Praise him with Timbrel and with Fl
Organs and Virginals :
5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him
praise him with loud Gymbals, 6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord :
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms of DAVID in Meter.

VENICREATOR.

Come Holy Ghost eternal God
proceeding from above :
Both from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love,
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly graces inspire :
That in all truth and godliness
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distress :
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.
The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestiall.
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christ's Church doth stand,
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace :
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our wits
Send down thy heavenly light :
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strengthen and establish all our weakness
so feeble and so frail :
That neither flesh, the world nor devil
against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man
without grudge or disdain.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide :
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant, we thee pray :
That thou maist be our Comforter,
at the last dreadful day
Of all strife and dissension,
O Lord, dissolve the bands :
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands,

The humble fute of a finner

Grant us, O Lord, through thee
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the figh.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway,
One God in persons three.
Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal:
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God coeternal.
And pray we that the only Son
vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do profess his Name,
unto the Worlds last end.

The humble fute of a finner. M.
O Lord on whom I do depend,
Behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
relese me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.
But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is preft,
To eafe all thofe that come to thee,
for succour and for ref.
And fift thou feest my reftleſ eyes,
my reas and grievous groane:
Attend unto my fuit O Lord,
mark well my plaint and mone.
For fin hath so enclosed me,
and compaſt me about:
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Chrift, my Lord and God,
who for my fins was slain.

Whof bloody wounds are yet to fee,
thoſt not with mortal eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and ſo I muſt ſhall I.
Through fin doth hinder me a while,
when thou ſhalt fee it good,
I ſhall enjoy the fight of him,
and fee his wounds and blood.
And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the fame,
No trut I to poſeſſ that place,
with them to praife thy Name.
But,whilſt I live here in this vale,
whereto finners do frequent:
Affit me ever with thy grace,
my fins ſtill to lament.
Left that I tread the finners trage,
and give them my conſent,
To dwel with them in wickedneſſ,
whereto nature is bent.
Only thy grace muſt be my stay,
left that I fall down flat:

Venite exultemus.

And being down, then of my ſelf cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my fuit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my fin,
that I in thee may refit.
Then ſhal my heart and tongue alſo
be instruments of praife:
And in thy Church and house of ſaints
sing Psalms to thee alwaiſes.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now ſejoyce:
And ſing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Alſo with one accord.

O let us come before his face,
With inward reverenſe,
Confefſing all our former fins,
And that with diligenſe.

To thank him for his benefiſe,
Alwayes diſtributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us ſing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magniſcent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forſake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coaſts
Of all the world fo wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth beholde the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The ſea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him:
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King,
And we his people are:
His flock, and ſheep of his paſture,

The Song of Zacharias called Benedictus.

The only Lord of Israel
be praised evermore :
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeem'd :
That long have been in thrall :
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.

In Davids houſt his servant thus,
According to his mind :
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
Oft times he did declare :
The which were since the world began
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From thole that make debate :
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfil :
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworn,
To Abraham our Father dear,
For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himself for us
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare

My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Son before I die.
The joy and health of all mankind
Desired long before :
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store.

Thou suffretest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.
Because mine eyes which thou haft made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might,
Whom thou mercifully haft set (Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visiblie,
Before all peoples face,
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quel :
And eke to be the glorie of Thy people Israel.

The Lamentation of a sinner

O Lord turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate i Lamenting, sore his sinfull life,
Before thy mercy gate :
Which gate thou openest wide to thos
That do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And cal me not to mine accusse
How I have lived here :
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.
I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have been and what I am,
I know thou know'it it well,
O Lord thou know'it what things be past
And eke the things that be :
Thou know'it also what is to come,
Nothing is hid frogn thee.

Before the heavens & earth were made
Thou know'it what things were then :
As all things else that have been since,
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then ?
Nay nay, thou know'it them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with tears I come to thee,
To beg and to increate :
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound :
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.
O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg and crave :
Thou know'it (O Lord) before I came.

The Lords Prayer.

The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total summe,
For mercy Lord is all my fuit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater Noster.

O Ur Father which in Heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In Heaven is. Give us O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.

Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free :
For kingdom, power and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The Lords Praier, D. Cax.

O Ur Father which in heaven art,
And mak'ft us al one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep figh & groane,

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.

From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour
And henceforth everlastingly :
Thine Holy Ghost into us pourre,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hands.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also :
In trouble grant us patience,
That to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keep us from war and from bloud-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth and pine.

That we may live in quietnes,
Without all greedy carefulnes.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our careful conscience :
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unto us have done offence.

Prepare us Lord for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the Holy Ghost.

The X. Commandments.

The ten Commandments of God
Exod. 20. W. W.

Hark Israel, and what I say
Give heed to understand :

I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou
in thralldome live a slave :

None other Gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt
shou make at all to thee :

Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above
nor in the earth below :

Nor in the waters beneath the earth
to them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt them serve, the Lord
a jealous God am I :

That punish parents faults, unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate,
and mercy do display

To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use :

For him that takes his Name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.

Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred sabbath day :

Six days thou labour shal, and do thy needful works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God
hath set to rest upon :

No work then shal thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid
thine oxe, nor yet thine asie,

Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place.

For in six dayes, God heaven and earth
and all therein did make :

And after those, his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.

Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain :

And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remaine.

A Prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us O Lord
To keep these laws our hearts restore,
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have
To keep these laws after thy will :
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfil.

Lord for thy Nemes sake grant us this

The Complaint of a sinner?

Thou art our strength, O Saviour Childe
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth confit?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwayes.
The conformer of thine elect.

The Complaint of a sinner:

WHere righteousness doth say,
Lord for my sinful part,
In wrath thou shouldest me pay Vengeance for my desert.
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess,
How that continually
Thy laws I do transgres.

But if it be thy will
With finnery to contend :
Then all thy flock shall spill;
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth;
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then fish the case so standis,
That even the man right wife
Falls oft in sinful hands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise,
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinful soul to save ?

But truly to that post,
Whereto I cleave and shall i
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all :
The price of this thy bloud,
Wherin mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee :
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most fwre
So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sin repleat,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee
So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my foes infernal

Come praise the Lord every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.
Ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion :
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.
Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night :
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.
Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his

Blessed by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me suffice :.

The Creed.

And of his mother Mary born
yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall :
He came and offer'd up himself
to death to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain
then Pilate being judge :
Was crucified on the Cross,
and therest did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts :
A dread unto the wicked spirites
but joy to faithful hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again :
To th' end he might be glorify'd
out of all grief and pain,
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still :
On Gods right hand his Father dwelt
according to his will.

Until the day of judgement come,
when he shal come again
With Angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertain)
To judge all people righteouslly,
whom he hath dearly bought :
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God
(my faith to satisfie)
The third person in Trinity,
believe I steadfastly.
The holy and Catholick Church,
that Gods Word doth mainsain :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death :
Release and pardon of my sins
and that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might :
And see him with their bodily eyas
which now do give them light.

And then shal Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide :
And give life everlasting,
to those whom he hath tri'd Within his Realm celestial,
in glory for so reft :
With all his holy companie
of Saints and Angels blest.
Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each hour :
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for evermore.

prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung
before the Sermon.

Some holy Spirit the God of might
Our comforter of us all :
Teach us to know thy Word aright,
that we may never fall.
Holy Ghost visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield :
Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord help us win the field.
And keep our King and his Council,
and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.

That in the same we may accord,
and therein live and die.

holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word :
If thou by them maist cut down sin,
as it were with a sword.
Part not from thy Pastors pure,
but aid them at their need.
Which break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.
Blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity :
Keep us from facts and errors all,
and from all Papistry.
Avert all those that are our foes,
and biting into thy light,
that they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

Lord increase our faith in us ,
and love so to abound :
that man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.
our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations far and nigh :
And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee.

I glory to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most :
The living Father and the Son,
and eke the Holy Ghost.
It hath been in all the time
that hath been herefore :
it is now, and so shall be

The Lamentation.

Through misbelief and ill life :
Thy Word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we unkindly gain-strive,
With fire and sword,
This healthful word,
Some persecute and oppose :
Some with the mouth,
Confess the truth
Without sincere godliness,
Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send
With grief and repentance true,
To pierce our hearts, our lives to
And by faith in Christ renew. (mend,)
That fear and dread
War and blood-shed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide,
Thy truth may bide,
And thine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust,
give ear unto my woful cry,
Rescue me not that am unjust,
But bowing down thy heavenly eye
Behold how I do still lament,
my sins wherein I do offend :
O Lord for them shall I be shent ?
fith thee to please I do intend.
No, no, not so thy will is bent,
to deal with sinners in thine ire :
But when in hearr they shall repent,
thou grantest with speed their just desired
To thee therefore still shall I crie,
to wash away my sinful crime :
Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,
but that it may help me in time,
aft thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
to poure on me thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall hit away,
in heaven with thee I may have placed

Morning Prayer.

Almightie God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our own merits or worthines, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, & grant our requests which we shal make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord: who hath also commanded us to assemble our selvs together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majestie, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most mercifull Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quiterly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may before this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glory of thy Name, & good ensample to all men, who seeing our good works, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy meer favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thy own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integritie of life, knowing that do'ers, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, but for them that thou hast already called to a true understanding of thine heavenly word, but for all people and nations of this world, who as they know by thy wondrous works, that thou art God over all. If they may be instructed by thine holynesse to believe in thee their onely Saviour & Redeemer. But forasmuch as they can not believe except they hear, nor can they hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of these mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarie to confound Satan, Antichrist, with all his adherlings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schisms, heresies, and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because we be fallen into the last and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seekes by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our sins and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israel many times provoked thy anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgments; yet though their sins were very grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receavedst them with mercy. We therefore most wretched

Prayers.

In bewail our manifold sins, and carry us for our former wickedness ungodly behaviour towards thee :
whereas we cannot of our selves pursue thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christ's sake, to shew thy mercy upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear Father) these thy requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ
our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayers.

Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up thee our eyes to heaven, much less to present
our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, &
not one time our requests, if we consider our own sins, and our selves. For our consciences do accuse us to thee, and our sins do witness against us,
alwayes we know that thou art an upright
judge, which doest not justify the sinners
and wicked men, but punishment the faults
of all. If all such as transgresst thy commandments. Yet most merciful Father, since it Savio[u]r hath pleased thee to command us to call thee cas[t] in thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us when none else will. And when we were swallowed before [top] of death and desperation, we utterly
l[ost] all worldly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bounty as our only and stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to contrain us to remembrance our manifold sins
all hind wickedness, whereby we continually already provoke thy wrath and indignation against us: neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily
And beseeched, nor in our lives sufficiently explained the sweet comfort of thy Gospel herein revealed unto us: but rather to accept the hand, obedience and death of thy Sonne Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in fa-thopel, sacrifice, once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy spirit, that we may rightly weigh them,
and earnestly repent for the same: and so childish much the rather, O Lord, because that the wicked probase, and such as thou hast forsaken us; cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name; but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed,
anger, aching and thirsting for thy grace,
just judgment! ever set forth thy praise and glory.
we are not. And albeit we be but worms and dust, urned from thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our God.

Father, and we thy chidren: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art
our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us,
but mercifully chastise us with a facherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make us night for man to rest in,
as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (dear Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we, not overcome
by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee:
furthermore, that our sleep be not exceeding or overmuch, after the infiablie de-fries of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name & profit of our brethren. So be it,

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O
Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies & loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord to elect and choose us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us
after thine own image, for redeeming us
with the precious blood of thy dear Son,
when we were utterly lost; for sanctifying
us with thy holy Spirit, in the revelation & knowlidge of thy holy word: for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities: for saving us from all dangers of body & soul: for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions:
for sparing us so long, and giving us
so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledg to have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, to grant us always thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth and comforted.

Prayers.

comforted in all adversities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventness & love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us always the substance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name; help to amplifie & increase thy kingdom, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serve thee: but bless thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful unto others. Be merciful, O Lord, to our offences: and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, captain and defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and our-stretched arm (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercie and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end, and in the end. So be it. Lord increase our faith.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God, most merciful Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel that we may relieve our need, we beseech thee of thy grace so to bleſs our labour, that thy bleſsing may extend unto us, without the which we are unable to continue; and that this great favour may be a witness unto us of thy bounifulnes & affiſtance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou haſt over us.

Moreover, O Lord, we beseech thee that thou wouldest strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our state and vocation without fraud or deceit, & that we may endeavour our ſelvs to follow thine holy ordinance, rather than ſeek to ſatisfie our greedy affections, or deſire to gain. And if it please thee (O Lord) to proſper our labour, give us a mind alſo to help them that have need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy haſt given us; and knowing that good things come of thee, grant that may humble our ſelvs to our neighbour & not by any means lift our ſelvs above them which haue not received so large portion of thy mercies as thou haſt given us. And if it please thee (O Lord) to make exercise us by greater poverty and ſcarcity then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldest yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nouriſh us conſiderably through thy boundiſh liberality, if we be not ſo tempreſt, that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait thou ſhill us, not onely with corporal graces and benefiſs, but chiefly with the heavenly and ſpiritual treasures; ſo intent that we may alwayes have moſt ample occaſion to give thee thanks, and wholly to reſt upon thy mercies. Hear (O Lord) of mercy, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, Amen.

A Confession for all estates and tynes.

O Eternal God and most merciful Father, we confes and acknowledg here before thy divine Majetie, that we are miserable ſinner, conceived and born in sin and iniquitie, ſo that in us there is no goodnes: For the flein evermore belleth againſt the Spirit, whereat we continually transgreſſ thy holy precepts and commandements, and ſo purſue to ouſelvſ through thy iuft judgment, deſt and damnation. Notwithſtanding (O heavenly Father) forasmuch as we are displeſed with our ſelvs, for the fins we haue committed againſt thee, and do unfeignedly repente of the ſame, we moſt humbly beſeech thee for Jesus Chrifts ſake, to ſend thy mercie upon us, to forgive al our fins and increase thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts our own unrighteousnes, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our finful luſts and affections, but also bring forth ſuch fruits as may be agreeable to thy moſt bleſſed will: not for the worthiſnes thereof, but for the merites of the dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our onely Saviour, whom thou haſt already given an oblation and offering for our fins, and for whose ſake we are certainly perfwaded, that thou wilt denie us nothing that we ſhall ask in his name, according to thy wil. For thy ſpirit doth auſtre our conſciences, that thou art our merciful Father, and ſo lovest us thy childe through him, that nothing is able to remoue thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father) with the Son and the holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.
